The positive comments and notes from residents about the Patriotic Celebration have been great. This was by far the largest event to date as we estimate that over 5,000 people attended or cycled through. It was a lovely evening. The summer weather always makes for "interesting" planning as the operations team works to make sure that everyone is as comfortable as possible in the heat and safe when and if a storm rolls in. This was our sixth year of hosting this event, and I'm proud to say that the fireworks went off on time, without a hitch and not affected by the weather. We are already in the planning stages for year seven!

Speaking of being proud, I am very proud of our company's team that puts on this event, plus so many other events throughout the year. Everyone comes together to work as a team and makes sure that you are not only entertained and wowed by the festivities, but kept safe as well. I sincerely appreciate all of them, as they make everything seem so easy.

Politics!

It happens every two years, the battle of ideas and signs begin. Certainly a lively discourse can be a healthy thing in a vibrant democracy. In fact, we count on it to advance the common good of this nation and its citizens.

In this particularly charged political season, I want to remind residents that Community rules explicitly prohibit the display of signs, including political signs: "Each residential unit may identify its occupants by a name plate of a type and size approved by the Association or its designee and mounted in a place and manner so approved. No signs, advertising, or notices of any kind or type whatsoever, including but not limited to 'political,' 'garage sale,' 'yard sale,' 'for rent' or 'for sale' signs as to any residential unit, vehicle or personal property, shall be permitted, posted or displayed in a manner so as to be visible from the exterior of any dwelling or home, on any lot or parcel, or elsewhere in the community without the prior written approval of the Association."

Master the Possibilities will once again be hosting forums of political candidates. All residents are welcome to attend. Please visit masterthepossibilities.org for dates/times. Also, the Republican and Democratic Clubs in the community will be hosting speakers as well.

The Town Square

Don't forget the Farmer's Market every Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Your participation is critical to this ongoing market, and this is a great time of year for seasonal, locally grown produce of all types. Choices vary from week to week, so make it a point to come out every week! Join our e-mail list at circlesquarecommonsfarmersmarket.com and receive current information about the Circle Square Commons Farmer's Market, such as special events, current vendors and more.

This month, we introduce a new band to The Town Square - Sparky Inner Track One Man. Don't ask us to explain their name, but feel free to ask them when you come out to enjoy their music on Friday, Aug. 5, from 6 to 9 p.m.

Circle Square Cultural Center

I'm pleased to announce that we have added enhanced audio visual features to Circle Square Cultural Center. We are adding two 14-foot screens, one on each side of the stage, together with an enhanced system of cameras capable of capturing close-up action of the performers. These new enhance-

Pickleball Expands

By Ray Cech
World News Writer

With the popularity of pickleball catching on, not only here at On Top of the World, but also nationally, the game is taking on a whole new genre of players. Cities are making way for the sport, often converting tennis courts or taping tennis courts to size for pickleball players. Naturally this does not come without some controversy. Tennis players are seeing courts being built, or tennis courts being converted for pickleball to accommodate the growing number of converts to the sport. It is perhaps the fastest growing sport in the United States.

Converts to the sport say that it doesn't take a full day to play, like golf, and, it can be learned and accomplished faster than tennis. Younger people are now playing pickleball more than ever before, because of the exercise benefits and the availability of court times. Many cities have started making courts available indoors, and as the demand grows, outdoor courts are being built.

Here at On Top of the World, the addition of courts to 12 is a sign of the popularity of the sport in retirement communities. Bill Daugherty, our pickleball instructor, says that the sport kicked off here about 12 years ago when players from The Villages came up and gave lessons. At the time, there were no pickleball courts, so they taped over the tennis courts with blue masking tape ... not the best solution, but it was a pretty good temporary fix. With more and more residents showing interest in pickleball rather than, or along with, golf or tennis, courts were built.

There are now 12 pickleball courts available and more than 70 residents playing the game. Bill Daugherty says, "We play for the fun, the fellowship and, of course, the exercise. It builds cardio, balance, hand-eye coordination and keeps reflexes sharp."

Bill runs some tournaments, an annual picnic and, gives instructions. If you are interested in learning more, or just want to get out and play, Bill can be reached by email at xxhbill2z@gmail.com.

Juneteenth Celebration

By Ray Cech
World News Writer

Juneteenth is the oldest celebration commemorating the end of slavery in the State of Texas, a milestone in the emancipation process. Master the Possibilities introduced the significance of this oldest known "freedom" celebration to On Top of the World and Ocala residents on Saturday and Sunday, June 25 and 26.

A brief history: In June 1865, Texas set free an estimated 250,000 slaves. On June 16, Union soldiers, led by General Gordon Granger, arrived in Galveston, Texas, and officially announced the end of the Civil War, and that, "all those enslaved, were now to be free."

Over the years, the Juneteenth celebration became less recognized and celebrated. But in 1980, through the efforts of Al Edwards, an African American legislator, Texas granted Juneteenth, official state recognition. Since then, other states, communities and organizations have begun to embrace this important celebration.

When visitors to the Juneteenth Celebration and Symposium entered the lobby at Master the Possibilities, they were greeted with a grand exhibit, "Pathways to Freedom." The display was founded by The Reverend Leroy Chandler and his wife Emma and is supported by Shamgar Ministries. It is a traveling exhibit that visually follows the early life of slavery, from Africa to America, their freedom and accomplishments, their contributions, and their current struggles for recognition and equality in America. Visitors were able to follow the path of African Americans in the Civil War, the Buffalo Soldiers, Tuskegee Airmen, Blacks in American politics and, of course, the Civil Rights movement. There were also several original artifacts dating back to the pre-Civil War era.

Margaret Spontak, director of education at Master the Possibilities, said, "The Juneteenth Celebration and Symposium provided an opportunity for our community to learn about black history; from the African slave trade to the abolishment of slavery in America, to the pathways leading to full voting rights and liberties. There is so much that is left out of our history books; these kinds of events help fill in some of the blanks."

Throughout the two days, there were lectures, presentations and discussions. One such presentation and slide show was led by Black Historian, Gary Monroe. His talk on "The Highwaymen" - no, not Willie Nelson - brought to life the contributions of Florida artists dating back from the turn of the 19th century to the present day. Their unheralded, but brilliant, artwork, mostly of Florida landscapes, brought oohs and aahs from the standing room only crowd.

Other lectures addressed black freedoms: freedom from slavery, freedom to vote, the freedom to pursue education, politics, and to create. Visiting scholars, authors and instructors made significant contributions to the Juneteenth event.

The exhibits, lectures, presentations and discussions at Master the Possibilities' Juneteenth Celebration were emotional as well as an extraordinary learning experience. The significance of the event is aptly summarized in a note written to Ms. Spontak from former diversity trainer Judy Larocca. It read, "The Juneteenth Celebration is another example of the diversity you offer at Master the Possibilities. I was overwhelmed by the displays and presentations, and we were once again reminded that we need to look to our past to make better decisions that [e]ffect our future. Because of your two-day event, both Ocala and Marion County are a step closer to bringing unity to diversity."

The closing ceremonies on Sunday, June 26, included rousing, hand-clapping and soul-lifting songs from The Gospel Echoes.

On Top of the World President Kenneth Colen closed the ceremony with thoughtful words on the importance of what took place and with praise for all those who made the Juneteenth Celebration and Symposium a memorable event.

GOLDEN OLDIES HUMOR

By Stan Goldstein

One side's idealist is the other side's fanatic.

Is It Legal?

Gerald Colen
 (727) 545-8114
 jerry@gcolen.com

In my opinion, the following are scams:

SCAM ALERT #1: IRS scammers call and say you did something wrong with your IRS tax return. Maybe you didn't file it or maybe you didn't pay all the tax you owe or who-knows-what. You must immediately hang up the phone. If they call back, you must not take the call or if you are one of those folks who don't have caller ID, so you feel you must answer the phone; you must immediately hang up. The IRS will never call you to say you owe taxes.

It is also important that you do not get into any discussion with these people. They will give you an IRS badge number and they will give you a return phone number - both of which are part of their scam. Just hang up.

And while I am at it, the U.S. Marshall's office will never call you to say you missed jury duty. Hang up on anyone who says they are from the U.S. Marshall's office. As soon as they say they are from the U.S. Marshall's office you should know it's a scam and hang up.

SCAM ALERT #2: I recently received an e-mail that appeared to come from my bank. The e-mail said that it was an account notification. The e-mail went on to say that I was being informed of a change in my online banking profile. I could visit a bank's office or I could click on some link. I am not clicking on any link. If you get an e-mail like that I suggest that you take it to your bank and show it to them. Or print out the message and take it to your bank. Do not click on any link.

SCAM ALERT #3: You incorporate a business, or create a Limited Liability Company and within a few days you get what appears to be an official document from the State saying it is important and that you should fill out this form and send in some money to get a Certificate of Status for your business. You do not need a Certificate of Status and for that matter, if you ever wanted one you could get it for about $5 from the State of Florida.

SCAM ALERT #4: The certified copy of deed scam is always lurking around. The way it works is that after you purchase a property, you get a letter from some company that claims you need or you should have a certified copy of your deed. In some of those letters they don't mention certified copy, they just say you need or you should have a copy. Either way, they will want you to send them money; and then they'll send you the certified or not-certified copy. No one ever needs a certified copy of their deed for anything. You won't even need a copy because you'll have the original. Further, if you want, you can go to the clerk of courts website and download a copy for free (not certified but as I said you don't need that).

Folks, I am pretty sure that most of you who read my column are abundantly aware of scams; from the ones I've mentioned here to phone calls from children or grandchildren claiming to be lost and alone in some foreign country to the Nigerian scam where you are contacted by someone promising you a gazillion bucks just because you are such a nice guy or gal. However, maybe you know someone who is not savvy about scams or perhaps that person lives alone and is lonely or maybe even has some form of incapacity. The scammers are heartless. Please help your neighbors or people you know by warning them about these terrible scams.

Q. I have two children of my own and two step children from my 22-year marriage to their father who is now deceased. My own children never call or write me and they never come to see me. However, my stepchildren frequently contact me and they've even come to Florida to visit me. I want to leave my stepchildren everything I have, not only from their father but what I have from before I married their father. My neighbor said I have to leave my children half of my estate. Can I just leave everything to my stepchildren?

A. Your neighbor is wrong. You can leave the assets of your estate to your stepchildren if that is what you want to do.

Q. I met a really nice man at a social gathering. We are both in our late 70s and we've decided to take a cruise together. My children are horrified. His children don't care one way or the other. My friend asked me to e-mail you and ask what should we do?

A. How 'bout you both do whatever you want and leave me out of it.

ments will take Circle Square Cultural Center to a higher level and provide our guests with an even better concert experience. No matter where your seat is in the auditorium, you'll have an up-close and personal look at all the action on the stage.

On Friday, Aug. 5, The Marlins with brothers Gary, Jace, Rick and Robert will take the stage. They have been performing together for over 25 years. Their talent covers the entire musical spectrum of rock, big band, pop, country, classical, jazz and bluegrass. Don't miss out on a fun evening.

On Saturday, Aug. 27, Kevin Costner & Modern West will perform at Circle Square Cultural Center. We announced this addition to the line-up in late June. Ticket sales are gaining speed as word of Kevin Costner & Modern West spreads throughout Florida. Kevin Costner & Modern West will be performing in Florida in August only at Circle Square Cultural Center!

Costner is well known for his acting roles; you'll get to see his musical side as he and Modern West perform original music, as well as songs written or sung by other artists. The show is interspersed with Costner dialog, as he engages the audience. The show wouldn't be complete without some clips of movies from throughout his career. Don't miss out on the opportunity!

You may have noticed that ticket sales launched early this year, in April, for the new entertainment series. Also, the release of shows was extended through July 2017. We have heard from so many of you that this was a great change because you leave town for part or all of the summer. Ticket sales have been great as a result of this change, with several shows in 2017 almost sold out!

To view the full entertainment line-up or purchase tickets, go to CSCulturalCenter.com. See you at the show!

Insurance Update

The fact that we are nearing the peak of the storm season is a strong reminder to all residents to check in with your insurance agent and make sure the insurance coverage on your home and contents is adequate. If you feel "lucky" and go without insurance or believe you can self-insure, you should reconsider because the cost of repair or reconstruction (especially from fire) may well put you into debt.

In the On Top of the World Central Owners' Association, residential structures as originally conveyed are insured under a master policy in the name of the Association. The event deductible remains at $10,000 per occurrence for any event including wind/hail related damage. Named storm deductible remains at five percent of the loss. Named storm events are subject to a minimum (community wide) deductible of $250,000 for any one occurrence such as a named storm. With respect to flood, earthquake, and flood resulting from a named storm, all loss, damage, and/or expense arising out of any one occurrence shall be adjusted as one loss, and from an amount of each such adjusted loss there is a $100,000 deductible.

The Associations do have coverage in the event of damage to building from sinkholes. This coverage has a $10,000 deductible. It is worth noting that sinkhole activity may occur in several storm-water retention ponds. This is not remarkable given the volume of water received and the concentrated weight imposed on the ponds in a very short period of time. The repair of such damage is a common expense of the Association and in not an insurable event inasmuch as no structures were involved. Fortunately, repairs and recovery are very straightforward.

Contents coverage may vary greatly depending what it is you wish to insure. As a basic point though, you need adequate limits to cover furnishings, personal items, floor coverings, appliances, fenestration (windows and doors) and cabinetry. Direct your agent to write an HO6 rider that provides for loss assessment coverage in the event of a special assessment from the Association to cover unforeseen shortfalls in losses. It is never a bad idea to see if that "loss assessment coverage" component can be increased.

There may be a possibility that your carrier will offer a product called "extended protection" that in effect offers another layer to loss assessment coverage. It was pointed out to me by a local insurance agent that the carrier may require a letter from the Association stating that there are "no losses, unreported losses, and ongoing repairs" currently pending. We have drafted such a generic letter and posted it to OTOWinfo.com (click on "Associations" then on your community). You may print this letter and provide it to your local agent.

Community Patrol

Patricia Woodbury

At the June meeting, Kassi Reidt, volunteer coordinator, reported that the Marion County Sheriff's Office decided it is no longer a mandatory requirement for all new volunteers to attend the Sheriff's Citizens Academy & Partnership Program (CAP). Although the CAP program is no longer a requirement to be a patrol volunteer, members and residents are encouraged to take this course. The CAP application form will be updated to reflect this change and copies of the revised version will be made available when completed.

Kassi reminded us that all residents can sign up for "Alert Marion" by going to marionso.com and click on "Alert Marion." This is a notification system that provides information about severe weather, missing persons and other emergencies. You decide where you want to receive this notification either on the land phone, mobile phone or by e-mail.

She announced that the Cold Case Unit of the Sheriff's Office has been working hard with the help of volunteers and recently solved a homicide case from 2008.

Lieutenant C.T. Welch was at the meeting and was pleased that the members acknowledged his recent promotion and assignment as the Southwest District Commander.

How about another driving tip? Those seat belts are really important to use every time you drive or are a passenger in a car. They are a protection for your body as they absorb the force, in case of a crash. They also help you stay in control of your vehicle by keeping you in your seat. Above all they increase your chance of surviving a crash by more than 50-percent.

If that is not enough to convince you to use your seatbelts, you should know that it is mandatory to use seatbelts as outlined in the Florida State Statute and Sheriff's Office policy. Failure to use a seatbelt could result in a disciplinary action and loss of benefits if involved in an accident.

The next regular meeting of the patrol will be Monday, Aug. 22.

Anyone interested in becoming part of our community patrol should call Gary Rodoff at (352) 291-7508. Our meetings are usually held on the fourth Monday of the month in Suites B and C of the Arbor Conference Center at 3 p.m. Come and join us, the meeting is open to everyone.

The "dog days" of summer are definitely here. We have been experiencing some very warm weather, which also brings the challenge of the peak season mowing of grass and dealing with weeds, pests, and fungus. We are thankful for no hurricanes thus far this season, but we have 90-plus days left. As a reminder, you may want to review your hurricane checklist just in case. I hope you continue to enjoy your summer and wish you a safe and happy August.

If you have family and friends visiting, take advantage of the many amenities to help entertain your guests - restaurants, pools, golf, miniature golf, tennis, entertainment on The Town Square, and let's not forget ice cream at Mr. B's Big Scoop.

Customer Service

Please note that the Customer Service office is closed the third Wednesday of every month from noon to 1 p.m., which falls on Aug. 17 this month. Customer Service may be reached by phone: (352) 236-OTOW (6869); e-mail: otowservice@otowfl.com; or in person by visiting Suite 200 in Friendship Commons.

Customer Service may be reached by phone Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and the office is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. If you reach their voicemail during normal business hours, please know that they are helping others and will get back to you as quickly as possible.

Resident IDs

As you are out enjoying the various amenities in the community, we ask that you please carry your resident ID with you. Verification of resident ID's at amenities such as the pools, and other venues such as happy hour, is our standard practice. Management wishes to ensure that the residents of the communities and their accompanied guests are the only persons benefitting from the great amenities.

Resident IDs will expire every five years. Please stop by Customer Service to update your ID upon expiration. We will also take this opportunity to update emergency information so that we keep your contact list current.

If you have an old card or need to update it, please stop by Customer Service. As long as you have your card and there is no damage, there will be no fee. If the card must be replaced, there will be a $20 fee.

Guest Passes

As I have mentioned in the past, a guest pass may be obtained for your overnight guests at Customer Service so that they may enter the community without having to log in and out. We do track the passes in our database, and therefore the guest license plate on vehicles must match the license plate number on the pass. When you make arrangements at Customer Service for a guest pass, please make sure you bring your guests' license plate number and the state in which it was issued.

Golf Carts

Recently a Florida Highway Patrol officer notified our safety officer that she had observed several residents crossing SW 80th Avenue to go to Walgreens as well as driving on the sidewalk along SW 80th Avenue. The officer has issued several warnings and let us know that she will begin to issue tickets as this is not allowed. Please refer to the Rules and Regulations, Private Golf Cart Rules which state, "... golf carts may not be operated on any county maintained roadway including SR 200, SW 80th Avenue and may only cross SW 80th Street and SW 80th Avenue and any future county-approved crossing at the designated golf cart crossing points."

We ask that you please follow the rules and the county ordinance. We want all of our residents to be safe and ticket free.

Minors

We have had a couple of enforcements of late regarding minor children. As a reminder, minor children under the age of 17 may not reside in the community. Please refer to otowinfo.com, First Amendment to the Third Amended and Restated Rules and Regulations, 55 and Older Community.

The Rules state, "The Association may request documentation from an owner or occupant of a residential unit, including school records, to determine the age, residency, or other relevant information concerning a minor occupying or visiting a residential unit."

Water Softeners

We have had a couple of high water usages come to our attention, which appeared to be caused by a water softener. The water softener was running non-stop and discharging into the washing machine drain line. It was recommended to the residents that they contact their vendor to repair the water softener. It is very important that vendors do not install discharges from water softeners into the sanitary sewer system in violation of the Bay Laurel Center Community Development District's rules on prohibited discharges.

Cigarette Butts and Fire Safety

The past few months have been very dry and we ask all smokers to please properly dispose of their cigarette butts. In years' past, we have suffered everything from a sizeable grass fire on the golf course to a small landscape fire at the front gate because of tossing a cigarette butt into dry grass.

Indigo East Update

The Indigo East Community Center renovations are coming along nicely. Once completed the community center will be refreshed and expanded with approximately an additional 2,150 square feet of space. The pool will also be heated and there will be a covered porch area for Indigo East residents and their guests to enjoy. Please remember that the Indigo East communities are private amenities for use by for Indigo East residents and their guests only.

If you missed the special visit from Martha Washington, the inspirational Juneteenth Celebration and Symposium, or the Campaign 2016 candidate forums; it is still not too late to take in some of the great courses focusing on American traditions during August.

The Salute to Our Founding Fathers and Mothers' Series continues with Ben Franklin (Aug. 5) and Remember the Ladies (Aug. 19). Doris Weatherford, author of numerous books on women's history, returns for the second time to share stories about women who served as fundraisers, spies, soldiers and supporters during revolutionary times. Her command of American history is remarkable.

As the presidential conventions wrap-up and the state and national campaigns heat up, learn about The State Political Perspective from Kurt and Evelyn Kelly (Aug. 1) and Trends in State Demographics and Election Outcomes from University of Florida visiting scholar Dr. Lynne Holt (Aug. 8). Understand the dynamics of the election process.

Have you always wondered how many American laws were created? Former Federal Magistrate Dick Belz shares insights on The Evolution of the American and Florida Legal Systems (Aug. 11). This is last in the American Legal Foundations Series.

Living historian Dee Collier returns as a Native American and interpreter for the Lewis and Clark expedition - Sacagawea (Aug. 9). Students have marveled at how Collier is able to remember narratives from over a dozen characters, bringing them to life through a realistic, theatrical portrayal. Two other state-acclaimed storytellers, Wayne and Jane Sims, share Florida during World War II - Holding down the Homefront (Aug. 12).

The lighter side of American traditions is reflected in music, humor, poetry and dance this month. Talented presenter Edith Gandy shares the Life Lessons from America's Best Humorists (Aug. 5). Jerry Colen follows that with Sex, Scandals, and Murder - Hooray for Holiday (Aug. 16). Master the Possibilities' own Heather Simms presents America's Music Series: Best of Broadway Music Sampler (Aug. 17). Simms has a beautiful soprano voice showcased recently at the Ocala Civic Theatre and during two Master the Possibilities coffee houses. Instructor Don Wyman is joined by partner Suzanne Crosby in a new course - Fred Astaire and His Dance Partners (Aug. 23).

A well-known author and humanities scholar Gary Monroe visits Master the Possibilities to present Sentimental Journey: The Tourist Arts of Florida (Aug. 11). Monroe is best known for his books on The Florida Highwaymen. These artists created art featuring vivid Florida scenes, made from inexpensive materials and sold out of the backs of trucks. Today they are sought after collector's items.

Come get out of the heat and into some cool summer programming. Learn about history, government, humanities and more in a casual learning atmosphere. While expanding your horizons, you will meet new people and get out of the house. Learning has never been so much fun!

Jane and Wayne Sims will share stories about World War II on Friday, Aug. 12.

Many Candler Hills residents attended the Fourth of July Patriotic Celebration at Circle Square Commons. Attendees enjoyed listening and dancing to the music of three bands. The food prepared by a variety of vendors was wonderful. Topping off the evening was a fabulous fireworks display, which even topped the one from last year. We thank Kenneth Colen, numerous employees, and volunteers who had a part in bringing this event to us. This was truly a wonderful way to celebrate our Independence Day.

Mark your calendar for the fourth annual fall picnic on Sunday, Oct. 23, from 3 to 5:30 p.m. at the pavilion. Tickets will be on sale on Tuesday, Sept. 27 and Thursday, Sept. 29 as well as on Oct. 4, 6, 11, and 13 from 10 a.m. to noon in the Candler Hills Community Center. Enjoy hamburgers, hot dogs, a variety of side dishes, and dessert. Look for additional details in the September and October Candler Connection columns. This event is open to all residents.

The Candler Connection speaker series will resume in the fall. On Tuesday, Oct. 27, Phillip Hisey will talk about how to prepare your lawn for the winter months. On Thursday, Nov. 10, there will be a canine presentation by representatives of the Marion County Sheriff's Office. Each of these events will be held at 3 p.m. in the Candler Hills Community Center.

The communications committee will present a "New Resident Welcome Session" on Thursday, Nov. 3, at 3 p.m. in Candler Hills Community Center. This will be a great opportunity for all of our new residents to meet each other and learn information about On Top of the World, Ocala, and Marion County. Have you ever wondered why streets are numbered the way they are? Get answers to this and more by attending this session.

The Candler Connection web site, www.candlerconnection.org, contains a neighborhood directory. If you are not getting "The Happenings" each month and wish to receive this by e-mail, log onto the Candler Connection web site to complete the form. This will allow you to receive notifications of any changes to the column that appears in the World News.

If you have not gone online to candlerconnection.org recently, check it out. Thanks to the hard work of Darryl Kenyon and John Podkomorski, the web site has an updated, more modern look.

The next Candler Connection board meeting will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 2, at 2:30 p.m. in the Candler Hills Community Center. All residents are welcome to come and discuss any issue pertaining to the board.

In the meantime, continue to enjoy your summer. Remember there are numerous activities available throughout the community. Challenge yourself to stay fit both mentally and physically by participating in the variety of classes at the Recreation Center, The Ranch Fitness Center & Spa, the Arbor Club, and Master the Possibilities.

Keeping It Green

Phillip Hisey
(352) 236-OTOW (6869)
phillip_hisey@otowfl.com

Drought stress in our Florida lawns is common in the summer months. These are historically our hottest, driest months of the year. Drought stress can be hard to differentiate from disease and pest infestation.

A few areas you need to consider are: Have I checked my irrigation system coverage? What type of grass do I have? How does this type of grass respond to stress? What insects and disease are present this time of year? Also keep in mind sometimes isolated drought stress may be a function of soil type in that area, root growth or lack of root growth, nematodes and possibly lack of irrigation coverage. Insects may be problematic for both Zoysia and St. Augustine grass during summer months. Very seldom during summer months will you see disease causing drought stress symptoms but there have been instances. These questions will hopefully help you make informed decisions on what your next course of action will be.

What type of grass do I have? Empire Zoysia has been solely used on new construction since the fall of 2009. This grass has been proven in the state of Florida to be a drought tolerant species with less inputs of fertilizer needed to maintain a healthy stand. Always follow Best Management Practices when applying fertilizer. Please visit edis.ifas.ufl.edu/lh011 for more information.

Empire Zoysia grass has a coarse texture with a dense growth habit. Zoysia spreads by rhizomes, which are underground roots and shoots where new grass leaves generate.

When the Zoysia lawns start to stress you see areas go completely dormant and turn brown, this is completely normal. When homeowners see their lawn turn brown, sometimes over night, the alarms start sounding.

When Empire Zoysia stresses, it shuts down and goes dormant to protect itself. When rainfall or proper water resumes, the grass will slowly come out of dormancy; if proper watering does not resume soon enough the Zoysia may die off. Zoysia is slow to recover from stress; with that said, give it some time to come out of dormancy.

St. Augustine Palmetto was the cultivar of choice for years here at On Top of the World. It was selected for the semi-dwarf growing characteristics and drought tolerance. St. Augustine grass grows from stolons similar to strawberry plants. These are above ground plant parts where new grass shoots are produced. St. Augustine grass requires proper cultural practices and proper inputs of fertilizer to maintain a healthy stand of grass. The Green Industries Best Management Practices lay out specifics for St. Augustine; please visit edis.ifas.ufl.edu/lh010 for more information.

When stressed, the St. Augustine lawn will turn a blueish gray and then brown. With supplemental watering the lawn will bounce back quickly if caught early enough. St. Augustine is a rapid grower so recovery can be short depending on the severity of the stress and damage. At times, I have seen brown St. Augustine lawns bounce back as well but this is the exception and not the rule.

St. Augustine grass will not go dormant for very long before it succumbs to stress. Also, when stressed, chinch bugs will invade the stressed areas adding further damage. Chinch bug damage can also resemble drought stress to the untrained eye.

Where do I start? Check the irrigation system. This is more times than not the root cause of the problem. Lack of coverage from heads knocked out of alignment or grown over are probably the biggest issues. Set out rain gauges and observe if your lawn is being irrigated at half to three-quarters of an inch for each application. Check your run times. Sprays should be 15 to 20 minutes, rotors for 45 to 60 minutes and MP rotators should water for 90 minutes. Check to see how many days of the week you are watering. Two days per week is what the Southwest Florida Water Management District allots. Drought stress is tough to overcome already with only two days per week. Don't compound with a one-day per week cycle or low runtimes.

Next, I would suggest checking the roots. Dig up a spot in an area of grass that looks healthy with a small spade, being extra careful to not knock the soil loose from the root ball. As you pull up the plug of grass pay attention to the roots and see how deep they go.

Then go to an area of stress and repeat this process. Most times you will see a significant difference in root growth and length. This is a good indicator of what's going on below ground. While you are here checking roots, take a look at the soil. Is the soil sandy, clay, loamy? Did you come across any "out of the ordinary" pieces of debris like rock or sometimes concrete? These can affect soil pH slightly thus locking up vital nutrients needed for proper root growth and drought tolerance.

Lastly, check for insects. Nematodes are possibly a suspect in both grass species noted above. These are microscopic parasitic roundworms found in the soil that reduce the ability of the grass roots from taking up nutrients and water. Currently, there is nothing available on the market to overcome this pest but there is some hope on the horizon. Bayer hopes to have a new product introduced in the market soon.

For now, if nematodes are suspected problems in your lawn, apply organics such as topsoil and sludge or Milorganite to affected areas. The organics help with moisture retention. Also amending soils by top dressing with organic topsoil modifies the environment and supplements the soil with natural enemies of parasitic nematodes.

Chinch bugs can also be problematic for St. Augustine grass. This is a small insect that lives in the thatch layer of the soil and causes most problems this time of year. Treatment with insecticide will typically keep them at bay but remember to alternate the mode of action when treating these pests.

The Veterans Club was pleased and honored to be part of the Fourth of July Patriotic Celebration at Circle Square Commons. Retired Army Colonel Aleks Brzezanski read the Pledge of Allegiance to the audience in respect to the meaning of Independence Day.

Also, club members presented each of the Armed Services colors as their respective anthems were played. Veterans in attendance of each service were honored and recognized.

The Veterans Club is open to all

Armed Services veterans and their guests. People who are concerned about veteran affairs are encouraged to attend. Also, the meetings will provide an update on recent legislation concerning current veterans. In upcoming meetings, various topics concerning veteran-related issues will be discussed and various opinions and ideas are encouraged.

The Veterans Club represents every branch of the military and meets quarterly on the third Thursday of each month at 2 p.m. in the Arbor Conference Center, Suite B. The next scheduled meeting is Thursday, Sept. 15.

Winds of Windsor

Walt Lamp

Windsor residents get together as a group a few times a year. This time the residents got together for a special reason. Tom Wester is always careful with his 16-year-old Labrador dog, Della, and his five-year-old orange tabby cat, Tebow, when he opens the door. But on Sunday, May 8, it wasn't good enough. Somehow Tebow slipped through Della's legs and ran out. Tom quickly ran out to get him, but it was too late. Tebow was gone.

And before you know it, the word got out. A number of Windsor residents drove around the neighborhood, but Tebow could not be found.

Murilla, Tom's wife, came home two days later and was extremely sad that Tebow was missing. She started putting up posters around the community. Then one night, some Candler Hills residents saw the posters and spotted Tebow near a bush in their neighborhood and called the Westers.

Tom and Murilla went over to Candler Hills and saw Tebow near the bush. Murilla called to him, but he turned back into the bush, never to be seen again that night.

As the first month approached, many were giving up hope, including Tom and Murilla. They gave away Tebow's toys, his dish and some cat food. They were resigning themselves to the inevitable.

Then on Wednesday, June 8, exactly one month from the day of his disappearance, Tebow was found. Mike and Barbara Kilroy, who live very close to the Westers were pulling into the loop, via SW 94th Place. Barbara spotted an orange creature to her right in the juniper bushes. It was Tebow. She told Mike to turn around, as he was approaching SW 94th Loop. Barbara and Mike called to him, but he did not respond, but more importantly, he didn't duck back into the bushes. Mike then drove down to the Wester's house and got Murilla.

When Murilla got there, she called to Tebow and this time, he properly responded. Murilla grabbed him and took him home. Tebow looked thinner, but otherwise all right. She fed him a little and soon took him to the veterinarian for a complete checkup. Except for a one-pound weight loss, he was fine. Needless to say, all were happy with this outcome.

Luckily, there are many animal owners/lovers here in Windsor. I am one of them with two cats. Thanks to all the neighbors and friends who gave their time and concern to help find Tebow.

Citizens Emergency Response Team

Beth McKeen

In order to become a member of CERT, you must be certified by the Bureau of Emergency Management of the Marion County Sheriff's Office. CERT basic training is designed to prepare you to help yourself, family members and neighbors in the event of a disaster such as a hurricane or tornado. With training and practice, and by working as a team, you will be able to protect yourself and do the greatest good for the greatest number of people. Certification requires an eight-week course covering topics such as disaster preparedness, fire safety, light search, triage and medical treatment.

At our July meeting, CERT members reviewed the process of triage in preparation for an upcoming drill. Triage is the process of sorting and prioritizing patient injuries by looking at the medical needs and urgency of each individual patient. Each patient's assessment is based on respirations, signs of circulation and mental status. CERT members can quickly determine which patients need to be treated immediately based on the severity of their condition. Triage rations that treatment efficiently when resources are insufficient for all to be treated immediately.

We are always happy to welcome new members to our team, so please consider participating in this service organization and giving back to your community. Our next regular meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 9.

CERT training classes have been filling very rapidly due to an increase in CERT interest throughout the county, so it is not too early to apply for the next training class. To receive an application, contact Beverly Case, Division of Emergency Management, at (352) 369-8103 or visit marionso.com, Emergency Management Bureau, and click on EM Volunteer Program Application. Fill out and mail in the application.

CERT meets every second Tuesday of the month at 9 a.m. in the Arbor Conference Center, Suites E and F. Anyone interested in learning more about CERT is welcome to attend these meetings or contact Beth McKeen at (352)-237-5079.

Member Does Four on the Fourth!

The Ranch is proud to congratulate Chris Riopel on her second place finish in the Iggy's Four on the Fourth Freedom Run; way to go Chris! This win was a long time in the making, starting back in 2012 when Chris and her husband moved to On Top of the World. By Chris' own account prior to retirement she was a "worker and a couch potato." When she retired and moved to Florida she said she made a commitment "to get fit."

The Ranch recently sat down with Chris after her amazing accomplishment to discover just how she made this happen:

Ranch: What was your motivation for running the Iggy's Four on the Fourth Freedom Run?

Chris: I decided to get active after my husband was successful in losing a lot of weight; I wanted to get healthier too. We relocated from North Carolina to On Top of the World in 2012 and it was then that I decided to get fit. The problem was, I didn't know what "fit" was; I thought it meant to lose weight.

The Ranch member and resident, Chris Riopel celebrates her second place win for the Iggy's Four on the Fourth Freedom Run.

So I joined The Ranch to help me with my "get fit" goal. I hired a personal trainer and started going to classes. I quickly realized that fitness was more about learning to exercise correctly, form does matter, and that it was about getting better at something. In that process, I got stronger and did lose weight.

After exercising for a while and finding success I wanted to accomplish something so I signed up to walk the Ocala Half Marathon in 2013. After walking the half marathon I started to include some running in with my walking. I continued workouts with my trainer, taking classes and walking and running. Setting a goal was a great way for me to motivate myself so this year that I decided to change my thinking from "exercising" to "training." That's when I decided to sign up for the Iggy's Four on the Fourth Freedom Run.

Ranch: How did you train to run this four-mile race?

Chris: I used a walk-run training program to prepare. I made the commitment to run the race early in May. That's when I got serious about my training. As I progressed I tried to increase my ability to run longer and longer. My goal was to run the whole race without walking. It was important to me to set a goal for myself; challenge myself so that I would progress.

Ranch: What was the most important part of this accomplishment for you?

Chris: The biggest thing for me is that I reached my goal. I was able to run the whole thing; I didn't have to walk! I wasn't sure if I could run four miles without having to walk, but I did it. I'm not a natural runner. This process took a while; I had to train and work at it.

Ranch: What advice do you have for your peers reading this and wanting to get fit like you did?

Chris: Start slow! Set a goal for yourself. Whether it is losing weight or lifting weights just get up off your perch, no matter what that perch is! Reading and doing crafts are great but you have to put some movement into your day!

Republican Club
Fred Pulis

The last Republican Club meeting prior to the Florida primary will be held on Friday, Aug. 12. Four different speakers will make their final case for election prior to the Aug. 30 event.

Two of the speakers are running for the newly-created United States House of Representatives, District 2. Both Mary Thomas and Neil Dunn will finalize their rationale for voting for them. The other two speakers are seeking positions on the Marion County Commission. Michelle Stone is seeking the District 5 position while Danielle Doty is seeking the vacant District 3.

Another club meeting with over 90 members filled Arbor Conference Center on Friday, July 8. The club welcomed five different speakers to the monthly meeting. These candidates for different elected positions included Heidi Maier, Brigette Smith, David Gee, Kerry Crawford, and Daniel Owens. Plenty of time was allowed for questions and answers by the club members in attendance.

Other dignitaries in attendance available for individual questions or comments were incumbents: Republican Executive Committee Chairman Randy Osborne; County Commissioner Earl Arnette; Florida House Representative, District 22 Charlie Stone; Clerk of the Court David Ellspermann; Superintendent of Schools George Tomy; and County Commissioner, District 5 Carl Zalak.

Candidates seeking new positions include: Dennis Baxley for Florida State Senate, District 12;

Brigette Smith for County Commission, District 5; Danielle Doty for County Commission, District 3; Michelle Stone for County Commission, District 5; Billy Woods for sheriff; and Maureen O'Toole for Florida State Senate, District 12.

The next meeting of the Republican Club will be held on Friday, Aug. 12 at the Arbor Conference Center, Suites E, F, and G starting at 7 p.m. Four speakers will be making their case for election. For more information about the Republican Club, please contact Fred Pulis at (352) 854-9976.

Democratic Club

One of President Obama's many awesome accomplishments was the restoration of diplomatic relations with Cuba. Some of our members have already taken advantage of the ability to travel more freely to that country. So this seems like a great time to learn about our neighbor, located only 90 miles from Florida's southern coast.

Iris Diaz emigrated to the U.S. from Cuba in 1961 with only a few dollars in her wallet. She earned a living by teaching, acting and working for NBC. Iris is now the proud owner of a horse farm in Ocala where she writes books. "Cuba, Another Side of the Story" tells about her childhood in Cuba and her life in the U.S.A. Author Iris Diaz will be the speaker at our meeting on Thursday, Aug. 25, and her stories are sure to intrigue us.

Don't forget to vote in the Primary Election on Tuesday, Aug. 30. Democrats will be voting for one of three candidates for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator as well as some local races and an amendment on solar power.

There is a picnic at Tusawilla Park on Saturday, Aug. 6, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. where you can meet the Democratic candidates. You may purchase your ticket for $5 at the Marion County Democratic headquarters at 601 SW 1st Avenue. You may also volunteer to make phone calls there to registered Democrats every weekday from 1 to 8 p.m.

We continue to support the Ocala Ritz Veterans Village so please bring paper towels, toilet paper, dish detergent, toiletries, laundry detergent, canned food and dry food to our meeting.

We meet on the fourth Thursday of every month at 6 p.m. in Suites E and F at the Arbor Conference Center. Our meetings are open to registered Democrats and Independent voters although only Democrats can be voting members of the club. Videos of our speakers may be viewed on youtube.com (otowdemclub).

For more information, contact Dan Lack at (352) 509-4942 or otowdemclub@gmail.com or visit our Facebook page (On Top of the World Democratic Club). You are not alone!

OneBlood Bloodmobile

The big red bus will be at the Recreation Center parking lot on Monday, Aug. 1, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The tragedy in Orlando is a reminder as to why having a ready blood supply is so vital for our communities. Those who made the decision to donate in the days prior to the tragedy helped ensure blood was available when the patients arrived at the hospital.

Blood donors truly are first responders. They do their part days before the blood is ever needed and as a result, they help save lives.

Blood donations are needed 365 days a year. The need for blood is very real and constantly needs to be replenished. You can help by stopping by the big red bus on Aug. 1.

Be a part of the first response team and make giving a blood donation a regular part of your life. See you on the bus.

French Knight Legion of Honor Award

By Bob Woods
World News Writer

A 25-year resident of our community has the prestigious honor of receiving the French Knight Legion of Honor award, which is the highest military and civil distinction along with congratulations for being awarded the Legion of Honor from France's President Hollande.

In a ceremony held at city hall in St. Augustine, Fla., Bill Eberle along with 11 other recipients received this French award on Dec. 10, 2015 from a representative from the French Consulate in Miami on behalf of the French government.

Eberle participated in two invasions during World War II in Europe at Southern France and Solano, Italy. Eberle served four years during the war as a radio operator with Texas' 36th Infantry Division who were accredited with capturing Hermann Goring, the second-highest-ranking Nazi official who was tried at Nuremberg for crimes against humanity plus other crimes.

Bill received numerous certificates of congratulations along with letters for his receiving the French award from the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia Terrence McAuliffe, along with Florida's Senator Bill Nelson.

The French award welcomed Bill Eberle into the Society of the French Legion of Honor. His certificate stated in part, "For his dedication and sacrifice will never be forgotten."

Eberle has received many other awards and medals for his combat service. The one that stands out above all the other campaign medals is the Silver Star, which he received "for gallantry in action."

Congratulations to our very own World War II veteran, Bill Eberle!

Come 'Serve' With Us

By Estelle Clark

The Lions Club held the installation of new officers on Tuesday, June 14 in Suites B and C of the Arbor Conference Center. We had the pleasure of having the incoming District Governor Larry Masters and his wife, Sue, doing the honors.

Our new officers for the coming year are: President Michael Topf, First Vice President Steven Snowman, Second Vice President Marty Schley, Secretary/Membership Estelle Clark, Treasurer Luann LaPierre, Tail Twister/Lion Tamer Peter Geden, and Board Directors Carol DeYoung, Charlie Hassett, Ed Michelson and Wendy Phillips.

During the evening, awards were presented to Lion Michael for the great job he did in leading the club last year. Luann LaPierre was presented Lion of the Year and Lion Estelle Clark was presented a new award from the district, sponsored by the New Vision Lions Club in Palatka, this award was the Carl Harrell Award for the most members recruited April 1, 2015 to March 30, 2016, two members tied for this award. Everyone really enjoyed the great spaghetti dinner, which was catered by Paul and Luann LaPierre.

We are in the process of getting our community projects in order as well as planning our fundraisers for the coming year. Our main focus will be on children as well as our veterans. We will still be supporting some of our other entities as well.

We are still collecting used eyeglasses that we send to missionaries in third world countries, ink jet cartridges and cell phones that we recycle and use the funds to send children to diabetes camp as well as all sizes of children's socks, stuffed animals and books that we take to Munroe Regional Medical Center's Children's Emergency Department.

We are looking for new members who want to become part of a very active club and the desire to help those less fortunate in our community.

We meet the second and fourth Tuesday of the month at 6 p.m. in the Arbor Conference Center, Suites B and C. For more information, contact us by calling Lion Estelle at (352) 861-7558. We serve.

Committee Chairs Announced

By Nancy Grabowski

The dog days of August are upon us but not slowing down the Women of the World! Women of the World is finalizing the plans for our first meeting of the new year on Friday, Sept. 2 in the Recreation Center Ballroom. Socializing, membership dues, and 50/50 will start about 12:15 p.m.; club-provided refreshments will be served shortly thereafter.

The committee chairs this year are: Beverly Moreau, e-mail; Barbara Martyn, telephone; Judy Singer, refreshments; Shirley Hamilton, 50/50; Mary Purfeerst and Marge Curran, Operation Shoebox; Claudette Moher, Marion County Senior Services; and Janet Fragapane, hospitality.

Especially good news is that Lois Nix will once again chair the Rags to Riches sale and we have a garage in Crescent Ridge to house our collection. The sale is slated for Friday, Oct. 21 in the Arbor Conference Center. Our annual bake sale will coincide with the Rags to Riches event. Details will be announced at the meeting.

Cheryl Fotia, our new first vice president, has lived here for more than 11 years with her husband, Phil. When she isn't traveling, Cheryl enjoys kayaking, biking, walking, reading, playing mah jongg and assorted card games. Cheryl is a volunteer with 100 Grandparents and is ready to make some new friends within the WOW clan.

Here's a closer look at some of our new committee chairladies. Marge Curran has been married to Jim for 41 years; they have three children and four grandchildren. Marge, a retired nurse, is quite versatile: she is a Happy Hooker, Sewing Bee, bowler, bingo and card player, a reader and a traveler. Her sewing expertise finds an outlet at Operation Shoebox; so she's a natural for that job!

Marge's partner in crime is Mary Purfeerst, a 25-year veteran of the US Coast Guard who then served in the federal court system. Mary and her husband, Brad, have three children and five grandchildren. Mary seems to have more than 24 hours in her day: she is a Candler Connection board member, volunteers at Munroe Regional Medical Center, TimberRidge ER, and Operation Shoebox. She looks forward to supporting our military families by co-chairing our committee.

The need remains for a person to chair the shuttle, which can be accomplished by cart or car. If you are hesitant to chair the committee, you might consider volunteering for a short time before a meeting. Generally, the drivers ferry ladies up the hill from 11:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and are available after the meeting to help women navigate the downward slope.

Remember, dues can be paid by check before the meeting. Dues are $15 for the 2016-17 year. Please send your check to Terri Molnar, 9789 SW 89th Loop, 34481.

Volunteers to help at the membership table are needed, too. I'd really appreciate the extra hands so contact Nancy at (352) 873-4315 or nmutss456@aol.com.

Our president, April Pollard, has been very secretive about some aspects of the September meeting. Speculation is that one of her favorite alter egos will make a special appearance. This might just add to the entertainment scheduled for our new beginning. Mark your calendar to join us and invite a friend. We are ready to greet you with our trademark smiles and welcoming personalities.

Genealogy Society

Peter Parisi

For the educational presentation held on Monday, June 20, we had a panel, consisting of Julia Hendrick, June Lachler, Jean Monroe and Kathy Niebo, who shared some experiences of their many years of genealogical research. We often use websites such as familysearch.org, and wonder, "Are there other websites that are free?" Many of our attendees shared their knowledge of sites and successes. The following is a recap of some helpful sites and research tips.

This website, newhorizonsgenealogicalservices.com, specializes on New England and New York. However, it also has all the other states listed. The Barbour Collection is a good place to start for New England.

Another website to use is usgenweb.org. It is free and includes every state.

This website, gedmatch.com, is a DNA tool that is partially free.

The Millennium File is a database that traces lineages of early American immigrants who have been identified as having roots in British or European nobility. They may or may not be completely valid and can help or hinder your searches.

In many versions of Windows, there is a snipping tool that is most useful for cutting out pictures, death certificates, newspaper articles and other information instead of printing out a whole page. In Windows 7, the Snipping Tool is found under "All Programs - Accessories - Snipping Tool." In Windows 10, click on the window (bottom left corner of screen) - All Apps - Windows Accessories - Snipping Tool. "Evernote" is another possible tool. There is always the Ctrl-

Alt-Print Screen" option which will print just the active screen. Then paste into "Microsoft Paint" or "Microsoft Word."

The website gedmatch.com uses GEDCOM (Genealogical Data Communication) a text file for storing genealogical information which can be easily read and converted by any genealogy software program. It was developed by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS Church).

To understand GEDCOM, pronounced jedcom, an example will help. In the United Nations there are many countries speaking many different languages. In order to accomplish their mission, they use interpreters to assist them in understanding representatives from other nations.

In the computer world, many programs are speaking their own language (codes) and cannot be understood by another program. GEDCOM takes the data in a program like Family Tree Maker and changes the code so that it can be understood by another program.

The Genealogical Society will hold a board meeting at 9:30 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 8 in Meeting Room #3 of the Hobby Building. The library will not be open during this time period. A business meeting will not be held in the month of August.

We will hold an educational presentation at 10 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 15 in Suites B and C in the Arbor Conference Center. The topic of the presentation is to be determined.

Our annual dues are only $10 per person or $15 per couple. One of the benefits of membership is the large library of genealogical books and DVDs available to members to be signed out and used at home for their genealogical research. Check out our website at otowgenealogicalsociety.shutterfly.com.

100 Grandparents

Janet Fragapane

Marion County Public Schools will begin on Wednesday, Aug. 10. The 100 Grandparents will begin reading to the children at Romeo Elementary in Dunnellon, Fla. in September.

Romeo Elementary would like to get the children settled in before we come. Since we have several snowbird grandparents, this helps us out too. Our first day to read will be on Tuesday, Sept. 13. More information about time and place will be printed in next month's column.

We read monthly on Tuesdays (except April). Here is a list of the specific dates for the upcoming school year: Sept. 13, Oct. 11, Nov. 8, Dec. 13, Jan. 10, 2017, Feb. 14, 2017, March 14, 2017, and May 9, 2017. If you are unable to read on any of these dates, please contact Evelyn Holiday at (352) 237-0304 as soon as possible.

If you would like to join our group, please call Evelyn Holiday at (352) 237-0304. The only thing you need to bring to the children is your willingness to give your time to read to them. The school supplies the books. One morning a month for eight months may change a child's life. What greater gift could you give?

Every month, the request for food for the children is a very big concern, as Romeo Elementary children are in more need than most in Marion County. If you would like to donate, please make your check payable and mail it to: Dunnellon Food 4 Kids, P.O. Box 262, Dunnellon Florida 34430. Please note "Backpack Program" in the memo line. The children thank you.

Keep collecting those Campbell's Soup labels, Box Tops for Education, and pull-tabs. Donated clothing, shoes and sneakers need not be new but in good condition and appropriate for school wear. Donated underwear must be new and in a sealed package. The ages of the students are five to 12 years old. Art and craft items are also appreciated. All donated items can be left on my porch at 9791 SW 97th Place (Crescent Ridge II) or at Evelyn Holiday's home at 8880-C SW 94th Street (Friendship Colony). You may also give me a call at (352)-861-1575 and I will come pick up the donated items.

The Glitzy Gals

Janet Wahl

Summer is here and many of our girls travel at various times, but we continue to get together every month. Our luncheon at The Club at Candler Hills with hostesses Caroline Caprano and Betty Tesmer was a delightful experience. The food and service were very good. A patriotic theme was followed for the decorations and favors. Carol was the prizewinner. After lunch, QM Mary shared the upcoming events and activities. She also had a game with points for specific items in your handbag. Dottie won that game and received a prize.

QM Mary and Ellen will be attending the International Red Hat Society Convention "Remember the

A`La Mode" in San Antonio, Texas. There was a time in recent history when dessert was not served until after a meal, but the Red Hat Society came along and many of the ladies started eating their dessert first. We will wait to see if dessert is served first at this convention. This convention will continue spreading the joy of fun, friendship, freedom, fulfillment and fitness.

The first Red Hat Society State Convention in Daytona Beach, Fla. is another event we are all looking forward to attending. An extra activity will be a high tea at Polly's Tea Room in the River Lily Inn overlooking the Halifax River. Germaine Mueller of the RHS Carefree Ladies who was a guest at our luncheon planned this event. We are looking forward to sharing this activity with them and getting to meet new Red Hat sisters.

"Sit and smile for just 10 minutes a day. It will change the way you look at things, and it will change the way people look at you, too!" QM Mary Curry

What's Cookin'

Gary Uhley

Just like your mother used to make. You can easily reduce this recipe to half, but I know you'll want to save and eat a number of times - it always gets better a couple of days down the road.

Hungarian Goulash

- 2 pounds lean ground beef
- 2 large yellow onions, chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, chopped
- 3 cups water
- 2 (15-ounce) cans tomato sauce
- 2 (15-ounce) cans diced tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons Italian seasoning
- 3 bay leaves
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce

1 tablespoon seasoned salt
2 cups elbow macaroni, uncooked
In a Dutch oven, sauté the ground beef over medium-high heat until no pink remains. Break up the meat while sautéing. Spoon off any grease. Add the onions and garlic to the pot and sauté until they are tender, about 5 minutes.

Add 3 cups water, along with the tomato sauce, diced tomatoes, Italian seasoning, bay leaves, soy sauce, and seasoned salt. Stir well. Place a lid on the pot and allow this to cook for 15 to 20 minutes. Add the elbow macaroni, stir well, return the lid to the pot, and simmer for about 30 minutes.

Turn off the heat; remove the bay leaves, and allow the mixture to sit about 30 minutes more before serving. Serve with garlic bread and a salad. Share with your friends!

Favorite Recipes Dinner Club

Luke Mullen

The Favorite Recipes Dinner Club has suspended our regular monthly dinners for the months of June, July, August and September. This is because many members head north or travel during the summer months. As such I would like to provide answers about our club that some residents have asked me.

The purpose of the club is for couple members to meet new people who enjoy cooking and entertaining people in their home. The club also provides the ability for members to enjoy eating dinners at different members' homes.

The club is not a gourmet dinner club. The idea is for members to prepare their favorite recipes. If a club members happen to have a favorite recipe that is a gourmet-type meal, they are always welcome to do so. However, those hosting another meal shouldn't feel the need to "outdo" past meals. Almost everyone has a favorite recipe!

Here is one of my favorite recipes we brought from New Hampshire and enjoy frequently! I modified it to eliminate the hand shucking of cherry stone calms.

Homemade Baked Clams Casino

5 servings

- 1 6.5 ounce can minced clams
- 1/8-1/4 teaspoon garlic powder*
- 1/8-1/4 teaspoon Italian seasoning*

1/8-1/4 teaspoon oregano*
1/4-1/2 quarter pound stick butter
2 six inch long pieces bacon
Half package of Ritz crackers (approximately 15 to 20)
5 half clam shells
Open the can of minced clams and drain/squeeze out broth. Put aside.

Take the Ritz crackers and run them through a food processor until they are completely crushed. Place the crushed crackers in a small bowl and add garlic powder (1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon), Italian seasoning (1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon) and oregano (1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon) and mix ingredients thoroughly.

Melt butter 1/4 to 1/2 of a quarter pound of stick butter.

Take the five clam shells and divide the drained clams equally into each shell. Put the cracker mixture on top of the clams and push slightly into each shell. Pour a small amount of melted butter covering the entire top of the crackers (just to moisten the crackers).

Sprinkle a pinch of oregano and Italian seasoning (combined) over the top of the clam. Place a 1-1/2 inch length of bacon over each clam.

On a small flat baking sheet, bake clams at 400 degrees Fahrenheit until the crackers around the bacon are nice and browned and the bacon is cooked.

For those who like it hot, carefully add a few drops of Tabasco pepper sauce on top of the clams.

* Quantity of seasoning may be adjusted to suit taste.

 I reuse the shells that come with a package of frozen Matlaw's New England Style Stuffed Clams - six to a box. After using shells, clean thoroughly and wash in dishwasher for next use.

Native Plant Group

Ron Broman

Is it possible to overlook a plant in plain sight? I guess so. Since 2001, we've written over 150 Native Plant Group columns, which Betty has saved religiously in three bound books, and none have featured coffee senna. How come?

Senna occidentalis has been in our yard for at least six years. With a height of a meter and a half and several lemon-colored, five-petaled flowers two centimeters wide - she's hard to miss.

Maybe subliminally we've passed her by because she's a weed. Is she a weed? Webster calls a weed a "plant that is not valued where it is growing - usually of rank, [overbearing], growth."

Another source, "Wildflowers of Florida and the Southeast" by Hall and Weber, states, "The flowers are attractive, but considering the weediness of the plant, are not highly prized as a wildflower."

Perhaps she's a weed. Perhaps she's not.

As an aside, the seeds have been roasted and used for coffee. Hence the common name. The roots and flowers have also been used medicinally. (With those credentials there are other plants that have been called "weed.")

She doesn't seem to be preventing any other plant from doing her/his thing.

As to the question of "value where it is growing," the "eye of the beholder is queen." Two species of sulphur butterflies, the sleepy orange and the cloudless, depend on senna occidentalis for their very lives. When mama-to-be comes calling it is enough to give you the shivers!

Yes, it is possible to overlook a plant in plain sight. But now, weed or no, senna occidentalis, coffee senna, septic weed (ugh), has hit the big time. She's "On Top of the World!"

By the way, the species name of coffee senna, occidentalis, gives a clue to her native habitat: the western hemisphere, especially the tropics and subtropics, including Florida.

The Native Plant Group members continue to maintain the SW 94th Street circle, the Long Leaf Pine Trail and the Belleview Library native garden as a way of beautifying and keeping healthy our environment. If you fancy growing native,

SPCA

Maria Devine

We'd like to remind everyone that there will not be an SPCA meeting in August. Meetings will resume on Thursday, Sept. 15. The board of directors will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 9 to discuss ongoing SPCA business.

If you need to get in touch with us for any reason, please call our hotline number at (352) 362-0985.

We'd also like to thank everyone who came out to our fundraiser at Sonny's BBQ on June 30th. It was a great success!

The SPCA is holding a fundraiser at PDQ restaurant at 3410 State Road 200 on Thursday, July 28, from noon to 6 p.m. All you have to do is show up with our flyer for lunch, an afternoon snack, or an early dinner, and PDQ will donate a portion of your bill to the SPCA so we can keep on helping the animals of Marion County. Some of you may already be on an e-mail list for the flyer. Others can print the flyer from either our Facebook page (Marion County FL SPCA) or website (SPCAofMarionCounty.weebly.com). The SPCA is totally reliant on donations and fundraisers since we don't receive any state or outside funding. We are always grateful to our wonderful neighbors at On Top of the World who step up and support us.

We are happy to report that Glory the lab mix puppy featured in last month's column has been adopted. Congratulations to Glory and her new forever family.

Our current foster who needs a home is Lovebug. She is a six-year-old American mix that came to us from SAFE (Saving Animals For Everyone) because she was not happy living in an outside kennel at their facility. Since we had a foster opening, we agreed to take her in so she could thrive in a warmer household setting. Darling Lovebug loves her foster mom, her toys, other dogs and going to the dog park. She's a medium sized dog, tipping the scales at 48 pounds. Not too big, not too small. Lovebug is also a good eater, not fussy at all, walks on a leash and is well behaved in the house. Lovebug is in good health except for a seizure disorder that is completely controlled by medication. If Lovebug is the right girl for you, you will have to continue giving her seizure medication twice a day with her food. She has been seizure-free for over three years, which means her medication is working to prevent them. Often, an animal that is seizure-free for this long a time rarely has a recurrence. Can you give this girl a forever home of her own? You can call Val at (352) 237-0727 to meet her and have a love bug of your very own.

If you're on the lookout for a new cat companion, we are fostering three nice cats that should be ready for adoption soon. Please call our hotline number at (352) 362-0985 to meet them and get first dibs.

Travel Toppers

Mary Lamp

As we approach August, I'm thinking about the cool breezes any of us can experience, as well as outstanding scenes to exhilarate our senses, aboard any of the cruises Travel Toppers is ready to book you on.

The first one coming up is our AMA Waterways Danube River cruise from Sunday, Oct. 9 through Thursday, Oct. 20, just a little over two months away. There is an optional three-night stay in Prague. Otherwise, our cruise begins in Nuremberg, Germany, and cruises down the Danube before ending in Budapest.

Our Valentine's Day cruise runs from Feb. 12 to 19, 2017, aboard Royal Caribbean's Oasis of the Seas with ports of call in Haiti, Jamaica and Mexico.

Lastly, we have an 18-day cruise, the Viking passage, aboard Holland America's MS Rotterdam from July 13 to Aug. 2, 2017. From Rotterdam, we will leave for ports of call at Bergen, Norway; Scotland's Shetland Islands; several ports of call in Iceland and Greenland; and Newfoundland and Nova Scotia in Canada's Maritime Provinces. The cruise will end in Boston.

Inge Gaitch is the coordinator for all of these cruises. For more detailed information and to book your passage, please call her at (352) 237-7428.

The day trips we have planned for the near future include a trip on Thursday, Sept. 15, to the Show Palace to see "Route 66." This is an exciting musical revue of some of the greatest "rock 'n road" hits of the 20th century. Gail Ambrose is the coordinator for this trip. To reserve your seat, call her at (352) 671-8280.

Very shortly, on Monday, August 8, our Premium Outlet shopping trip to Orlando will open for booking. We travel there on Friday, Nov. 11, at a cost of $21 per person. This would be a great opportunity to wrap up your holiday gift shopping. There are 180 outlet stores and plenty of room in the hold of the bus for your purchases! Inge Gaitch is the coordinator and you can reach her to reserve your seat at (352)237-7428.

For more information about these and other planned trips, please visit our website at traveltopperstours.com, or refer to our brochure which is available at your post office, the Arbor Club, the Recreation Center, and your community center. Our winter brochure, with new trips being offered through the Spring of 2017, will be available the middle of September.

We are a resident volunteer-run club and we welcome active participation from other residents. You can have the opportunity to suggest trips/tours of special interest to you. Please contact any of our officers if you'd like to get involved. Happy travels!

On the Road Again

Bob Woods

As of this writing, the club has not received pricing or an itinerary for the Niagara Falls nine-day motor coach trip departing our community during the first week of June 2017. By the time you read this column, the club hopes the pricing and information for the trip will be posted on the club's website. The trip will include a cruise to the base of the falls onboard the Hornblower, visits to Niagara-on-the-Lake, Queen Victoria Park, Casa Loma Castle, a guided tour of Toronto, Erie Maritime Museum and the list continues. Sound good? Call John Ware at (352) 873-3516 and get your name on a call list under no obligation. When details are available John will give you a call.

The club's Savannah five-day motor coach trip in October and the Oasis of the Seas cruise in November are completely sold out. John has started a stand-by list for the Savannah trip. Call if you would like your name placed on the list in case of any cancellations.

The club has two cruises planned at press time for 2017. The first is a circumnavigating cruise around Australia with a stop in Bali, Indonesia and many stops in the South Island of New Zealand with an additional port call in Wellington before heading back to Sydney. This cruise has a few openings for residents wishing to partake in the 35-day excursion with 33 nights onboard Royal Caribbean's Radiance of the Seas sailing from Sydney. Call Bob Woods at (352) 854-0702 for prices, itinerary, and additional information. This is a true "bucket-list" excursion.

The second cruise will depart on Dec. 2, 2017 onboard Royal Caribbean's newest Oasis class ship, the Harmony of the Seas. The group will be bused to Fort Lauderdale to board the ship that will be heading to St. Maarten, San Juan, and the private beach at Labadee, Haiti.

For additional information, flyers, pictures of previous trips, please visit the club's website at bobwoodsontheroadagain.com or call Bob Woods. All trips are open to residents and their guests.

Caren Kowalsky

I hope you all are having a great summer. This is a good time to sit back, put your feet up, read a great book, or just find a cool place to hang out and relax.

Our last LadyBirds luncheon took place on Tuesday, July 26 at Mimi's Café and was hosted by Lyn Titcombe. We ate delicious food and enjoyed great LadyBird company. What a winning combination!

Please be on the lookout for information regarding our August luncheon to be hosted by Pat Balenger.

We are always on the lookout for new members to join our happy group. To that end we extend a warm welcome to any spouse or significant other of an R/C Flyer. Please come and join us at one of our LadyBirds meetings, which take place on the second Friday of each month from September through April. We begin at 9 a.m. at the Arbor Conference Center, Suites B and C. Just bring your favorite beverage. We supply the goodies courtesy of our very talented LadyBirds. After sitting in on one of our meetings, we are sure you will want to join our merry group of LadyBirds.

Please feel free to contact me at allensky@earthlink.net or (352) 291-1235 with any questions you may have, or just to chat. Looking forward to speaking with you soon, or seeing you at one of our meetings.

It's hard to believe we are into August already! Hope everyone had a safe and enjoyable Fourth of July! Circle Square Commons was filled with a lot of patriotic spirit, and as always, the dancing was endless. And now we enter one of hottest and busiest months for businesses, since most people take their vacations in August.

Recreation & Wellness Connections

The Recreation & Wellness Connections catalog is now out and full of planned activities for the upcoming months. If you did not receive a catalog, please stop by the Recreation office to pick up a copy.

Enviro-Shred

Enviro-Shred, Inc. will be on site for another document shredding event on Thursday, Aug. 4 in the Recreation Center parking lot from 10 a.m. to noon. They use the big shredder truck and will shred an entire box of documents right before your eyes. All shredded paper will be recycled into reusable paper products. The cost is $4 per one-cubic foot (or one normal storage size box). For more information contact the Recreation office.

New Year's Eve Extravaganza*

Celebrate New Year's Eve in the Arbor Club Ballroom on Saturday, Dec. 31, from 8 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. with dinner, entertainment, dancing and more! Second Slice will be the entertainer for the evening.

Ticket cost ($55 per resident, $65 per non-resident accompanied by a resident) includes a dinner buffet, party favors, and champagne toast with souvenir flute and continental breakfast. Proper dress required. Seating is limited to eight per table. Tickets (maximum of eight per person) will go on sale at the Recreation Office on Monday, Aug. 22. Please note resident ID is required to purchase tickets.

Line Dance Classes*

Line dance classes take place in the Recreation Center Ballroom every Monday from Sept. 12 to June 26, 2017. Give yourself the gift of line dance! Choose the class according to your ability. You can switch to a different level at any time. Cost is $10 per four-week class. The instructor is Marilyn McNeal. Four levels of dance are offered. Line dance tickets for the month of September are on sale on Tuesday, Aug. 9 and will continue every Tuesday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., in the Recreation Office. (Please note that line dance tickets will not be sold on Mondays.)

- Absolute Beginners (5 to 6 p.m.): This class is an introduction to line dance. Step patterns described, practiced and used in simple patterns. Step sheets provided.
- Beginner Level One (3:45 to 4:45 p.m.): This class completed the Absolute Beginners. Dancers have some experience now and know step pattern descriptions. Easy dances are taught at this level with additional step patterns added.
- Beginner Level Two (2:30 to 3:30 p.m.): Class includes basic line dance steps, combinations, and easy dance patterns, with low impact movement to many different rhythms. New step patterns are taught as needed. Some prior dance experience is required.
- Improver Plus (1:15 to 2:15 p.m.): Dance experience required for this class. Improver means slightly easier than intermediate. Current popular dances taught at this level.

Insider's Tour of Ocala's Horse Industry*

Join us for a tour of Ocala horse country on Friday, Aug. 12. You will take a tour of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association Museum, one of the USA's top equine veterinary hospitals, a retired champion thoroughbred stud farm and a third "surprise farm." Karen Grimes, horsewoman and Ocala "insider," will take you on a beautiful drive with a narration of our area's rich history, and points of interest between the stops. Lunch will be at The Blue Waygu. The cost of $31 per person includes transportation and tour

Bill Shampine

Morocco, located on the coast of northwest Africa, is on the south (African) side of the Strait of Gibraltar. It is unique in that it has coastline on both the Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea. Today, we are going to learn about Marrakesh. A population of about 930,000 people makes it the fourth largest city in Morocco. Founded in 1062, Marrakesh quickly became a cultural, religious, and trading center that continues to this day.

Since it was founded, governance of the region has shifted among various local tribal sheikhs. Some stability ensued in 1912, however when the country became a French Protectorate. The French finally gave independence to Morocco in 1956.

Marrakesh is in a pretty setting. With an average of only 11 inches of rain per year, the landscape is reminiscent of the landscape you might find in Phoenix, Ariz. The snow-capped mountains of the High Atlas range, only 20 miles away and reaching 13,671 feet in elevation, offer spectacular views to the south.

In recent years, Marrakesh has experienced a boom in tourism. It now is part of the European jet set agenda. There has been a boom in construction of hotels, restaurants, and high-end shops. In spite of the building boom, the historical flavor of the city still can be found in the medina (historical city). The wall around the medina, which is 19 feet high and still standing, was built in the 12th century with a distinct orange-red clay and chalk. This color gave the city the nickname of "the red city."

Tourists have a plethora of things to see and do in Marrakesh. Shopaholics get very excited there as they can roam for days among the many souks seeking out bargains in carpets, ceramics, woodwork, leather goods, and metal work. For the ladies, you need to learn how to say "take me to the souk al dahab" (gold store). Of course, you also can shop in the high-end stores instead of the hundreds of local shops, but that isn't as much fun. No matter where you shop, you need to be ready to haggle over the price. It is an art form in the Arab world that is practiced by everyone for everything.

The city has many gardens, museums, and historic sites to visit. For example, the Menara gardens, built in 1130, have a small lake supplied by water from an ancient hydraulic system. There is the 990-acre Agdal Garden, also built in the 12th century, where the sultan kept his harem. More recently, Yves Saint Laurent bought the old home of landscape painter Jacques Majorelle, and restored the property. It now is a Museum of Islamic Art, and open to the public. Other museums include the Marrakesh Museum housed in the Dar Menebbi Palace and the Dar Si Said Museum. Historical sites include the El Badi Palace, Royal Palace, and Bahia Palace. Being dominantly a Muslim region, there also are many, beautiful mosques in Marrakesh.

You can spend the day just wandering around the city observing the hustle and bustle of the city as everyone is trying to make a buck. The market areas are filled with vendors, snake charmers, people with monkeys, and ladies wanting to give you a henna tattoo. By the way, if you take a picture of someone, they will expect to be paid.

I hope all of you are having a pleasant summer. The board is back at work planning the schedule for the coming year. Last year's programs were on a variety of subjects, and they seemed to have met with success. We hope to continue with a similar variety this year. If you have any suggestions, please contact Jackie Ludmer at (352) 304-8124 as there are still openings on the schedule.

There was tremendous success with the lunch bunch this year. Thanks to the leadership of Myra Post, the group went to a wide variety of restaurants. We all look forward to the coming year. If you have a suggestions, contact Myra Post at (352) 861-9223.

Just a few reminders - dues are now $15 per person; and all meetings will start at 1 p.m. (instead of 2 p.m.).

Enjoy the rest of the summer. Have a happy Labor Day, and we look forward to seeing all of you in September.

New Ballet Class in September

By Eugenie Martin

Eugenie Martin, Jean Hsu, Dalia Echevarria, Kathy Hess and Leonor Durst prepare for the new "Fusion Floor Barre" class.

In September, the Ballet Club will offer a new class entitled, "Fusion Floor Barre." The class will be held on Saturdays from 11 a.m. to noon, and will incorporate elements of ballet, Pilates and yoga. It will work the core of the body, while providing flexibility and strength to arms, legs, feet, neck, shoulders and hips.

Although ballet dancers are all welcome to the "Fusion Floor Barre" class, that will not be a requirement for attendance. All residents will be welcome to this class that will offer a strengthening, stretching and relaxing workout done to beautiful music.

As with our four ballet classes, the new "Fusion Floor Barre" will be free, and will be held in the Arbor Club Exercise Studio next to the indoor swimming pool. The studio has floor mats for use, or attendees may bring their own exercise mats. We also suggest a small pillow or rolled towel for the neck.

Of course, we still offer our four regular ballet classes each week: beginner classes on Tuesdays from 11 a.m. to noon, and Fridays from noon to 1 p.m.; plus more advanced classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 to 2:15 p.m. For information on our new "Fusion Floor Barre" class starting in September, or our ongoing ballet classes, please call me at (352) 854-8589.

Happy dancing!

Morning Flights

By Gary Bayless

At club member Phil Moherek's urging, I recently pried myself out of bed and joined the "dawn patrol" at the flying field. Yes, people actually get up before 8 a.m. and go flying when there's no wind! All were electric machines and they seemed to enjoy themselves, takes all kinds! I'm joking but if the heat gets to you try early flying. It's fun but you may blow a few landings without a headwind, I did.

This month, we spotlight a long time active club member, Ted Pope. Ted and his wife Diane first retired to the Ft. Myers area from Hopkinton, Mass. and then 10 years ago to Candler Hills. With a wry smile, the retired anesthesiologist says he put people to sleep for free but charged to wake them up. Rumor has it that Ted's workshop is as neat as a pin with each tool assigned its place and returned there immediately after use. We will not hold this against him as he is otherwise a very nice fellow.

You can find him most mornings flying one of his several large-scale models, his favorite being the Skywolf an acrobatic trainer. However, his most extraordinary model is a Dornier 335 with which he recently completed 61 successful flights. An almost forgotten piece of aviation history this late production German fighter named the arrow was never used in combat but with two engines, one pulling from the front and one pushing from behind, was the fastest propeller driven airplane of World War II reaching 475 miles per hour.

Other details Ted was happy to share include the fact the engine driving the rear prop was located in the center of the airplane causing problems maintaining the long drive shaft. Ted's model has only one engine in the front. He tried two but the model required five pounds of lead for balance! He only flies the Dornier when there is an east wind across the field to accommodate the 335's need for a long take off run. After owning 30 twin engine models and only having one left Ted is happy to live with the dummy prop on the rear of the "anteater" as the German pilots nicknamed the long nosed one of a kind Dornier 335.

Power Park Update: Four Person Combo Bars

By Cammy Dennis

Some of you may have noticed a change in the four person combo bar, which is one of the static pieces of equipment along the walking trail on SW 99th Street Road (next to the dog park). We lowered some of the bars to increase your exercise options.

Here is a recommendation of how you can use the following bars now that they have been lowered:

- Modified push ups
- Modified pull ups
- Regular pull ups
- Vertical knee raises

Bingo
Denise Johnson

Another month has gone by and we have had lots of winners in June. The big winner was Pauline! She hit the last game of the night (jackpot that increases weekly). I will not report the amount, but her smile lit up her face. Recently, Gloria and Gary won $75 on two different jackpot games. They did not share as they were single winners in each game.

It is hot and will get hotter but everyone can be cool for a few hours plus maybe win some cash. Come on Wednesday night and give us a try. Be there by 5:40 p.m. to give yourselves time to purchase cards and find a seat.

The Pub will be open until 6 p.m. to accommodate the players. Looking forward to seeing you and hearing "bingo" yelled loudly and often.

Shufflers gathered together on Tuesday, July 5 to play a game of summer shuffleboard. Some came to learn the game, improve their skills or compete. Yet, mainly, everyone was there just to have some fun playing and enjoying the company of others.

After taking places, the players were eager to begin. As they played, everyone seemed to be having a good time. It must have been "kitchen" day, as there were a number of players getting their discs in the "kitchen." But at the same time, we had a number of shufflers who were able to hit those "kitchen" discs out.

There was also a good play by Paul Hodges. His opponent had his disc in the 10's place with another disc blocking it. Nevertheless, this did not stop Paul from going after the good 10's disc. Paul was able to maneuver his disc enough to the side without touching any of the lines, and with a perfect aim, he was able to oust the disc from the 10's spot.

The winners of two out of three games were: David Lee, Jess Taylor, Paul Hodges, Bob Durst, Bill Weir, Shirley Lindsay, Bob Stubbs, Rick Vogel, and Henry Erikson. Bob Stubbs also made the 30 Club.

While playing shuffleboard, again sometimes the question comes up after a play, as to whether the disc is on the line; that is, if it is a "good" disc or not. The answer is, it just depends on how you are looking at the disc. Was the caller sitting on the bench when the determination was given, or was the caller looking at the disc from the side? If the call was given under these circumstances, the call may not have been correct. In order to have a more accurate calling, you need to be directly over the disc and look straight down at it.

The Official Rules of the Florida Shuffleboard Association says this about judging a disc: "When judging disc in relation to lines, the official shall position himself/herself with the disc between him/her and the line and sight directly down." If still in doubt when you look at it, ask the captain of your team for determination.

Also, there have been some questions as to when a player drops his/her cue stick on the court during playtime, as to whether there is a 10-point penalty for having done so. Again, checking out the Official Rules, it states, "A cue slipping from a player's hand which touches or displaces any live disc, the player is penalized 10 off and opponent credited with any of his/her discs displaced, and that half-round shall be played over - unless game point has been reached by offender's opponent. If cue does not touch or displace any live disc, no penalty." Thus, do not take off 10 points for someone who just drops a cue stick without touching any live disc.

Just a reminder that we still have time to come and play shuffleboard for the summer, whether it is regular shuffleboard or Ten Pin. Hope to see you there!

The competition within our recently completed Intra-Club Ryder Cup was so fraught with tension in the air that you needed not just any old knife but an electric carving knife to cut through it. And just how thick with tension was this competition you may ask? It was so tension filled that two of the competitors saw a dark cloud, simply one dark cloud I remind you, looked at each other, agreed to declare their match a draw after only 13 holes and scampered on in to enjoy their complimentary burger and grog. Do we know how to run a competitive natured tournament or what?

As for the tournament itself, after a thorough screening of all scores by our crack accounting firm "Dewey, Cheetum & Howe," the match ended in a tie. It was decided that the two captains should go back out and battle it out to decide the outcome but the competition committee could not wrest Randy Ford and Tony Misterly away from their burger and grog. And so both teams will share the prestigious Patriots Cup jointly until next year's competition.

The association welcomes newest member Bill Brandon to the assemblage and we hope you enjoy the experience. And an experience it shall be as we are not inclined toward sentimental pap or drivel. This company of gentlemen golfers does not possess anything near an inflated sense of itself but revels in the knowledge that the subterranean element that binds us all together is the golf. Anyone else interested in playing in such an environment can contact me at tjalf@otowhomes.com for more information.

Someone once said, "Golf is a very personal game in which each player is hostage to his own incompetence." Having no such lack of ability to play this game the past month was Jay List (69), Walt Pacuk and Joe Damiata (73), Dave Miller, Joe Schuberth and Chris Jett (74), Julian Hobby (75), Ken Zweiback, Paul Rubly and Chad Robinson (76), Rick Hiel (77), Bruce Venslavsky, Garry Gerlach, Bob Meyer and Bryant Giffin (78), and Gene Moff, Craig Riber, Jon Hill, Larry Kettlewell, Jim McGrath, Ron Fulton and Tony Misterly (79). That was a good bit of stuff smackin' the feathery lads!

As always, please allow me to continue to wish everyone "a life full of nothing but fairways and greens."

I am not one to watch much golf on television, but I've been watching it more lately. With the weather so hot, I find my recliner a great place to be at 3 p.m. on a Sunday afternoon. Watching and reading the golf news has actually made me feel better about my game. If V.J. Singh can hit someone in a different fairway than the one he is playing and the world's number one (Jason Day) can choke under a bit of pressure, I should not feel bad about those shots I hit that go only half as far as planned or end up deep in the woods. Of course, I would love to be able to play within 20 strokes of either of those guys.

While playing golf, please remember to stay hydrated and find the shade when you can.

Oh how the seasons fly. The PGA Tour is down to its final major of the season, the PGA Championship. This year's event will be held at Baltusrol Golf Club in Springfield, N.J. Phil Mickelson last won at Baltusrol in 2005 with a score of four under par. Here are the professional picks for this year's PGA Championship. Matt - Matt Kuchar; Denise - Jordan Spieth; Daniel - Justin Rose; and Russ - Dustin Johnson. Who do you think will take home the Wanamaker trophy?

By now, many of you have commented on the new landscape berms constructed to the left of hole nine on Candler Hills. These berms were installed to provide visual blocking of a future roadway planned for this area. The berms were constructed now to allow for the plant material to mature prior to construction and also provide for visual screening of the construction road entrance. Please respect these new plantings and tread lightly when entering this area.

As everyone is aware, pace of play and course difficulty are two main reasons for decline in new golfers. I'm sure you have all appreciated the recent "While We're Young" commercials produced by the USGA. This public campaign was created to address slow play on the golf course and create a more enjoyable game.

A campaign that On Top of the World golf has been promoting is the "Tee It Forward" program. The goal of this program is to enhance your golf experience by speeding up play while playing the set of tees that are best suited for your golfing ability. Most golf courses have four to five sets of tees. These tees are no longer created based on gender but playing ability. Just because the tees are red doesn't mean they are just for ladies.

By playing the correct tee you will enhance your golf experience and have a more enjoyable round of golf.

Golf Tip of the Month

How many of you watch the Golf Channel, read Golf Digest or listen to your fellow golfers for tips on how to improve your game? You then take these tips to the golf course expecting to immediately improve.

Driver Distance	Recommended 18 Hole Yardages
275	6,700 - 6,900
250	6,200 - 6,400
225	5,800 - 6,000
200	5,200 - 5,400
175	4,400 - 4,600
150	3,500 - 3,700
125	2,800 - 3,000
100	2,100 - 2,300

This chart recommends the yardage a player should play from based on how far you hit your driver.

This unfortunately isn't the best approach to take. Most of the tips you see or read aren't always the best tips for you to apply to your game. The best way to improve your score is to take lessons from a golf professional. A golf professional can pinpoint specific ways for you to improve your game. Next make sure you practice what your instructor is teaching. If you don't practice then you are wasting your time and the instructors. Take a series of lessons, remember to practice and take pride in your improvement.

With the heat and summer traveling, participation on league days has dropped a little bit.

Progress has been made in selecting our league shirts. The color will be aqua. It is hoped that league members will be able to place orders at the Tuesday, Sept. 13 meeting.

A golf outing to Juliette Falls is planned for mid-August. Details on date and cost will be posted when available.

We want to welcome our newest member, Susan Yenne. Susan and her husband, John, have lived in Crescent Ridge I since May. They moved here from Asheville, N.C., where they had lived for 10-1/2 years. What attracted the couple to On Top of the World was the golf courses and the woodworking shop.

Our league always welcomes new members. The league is open to all women residents with an established handicap. We have league play starting at 9 a.m. with rally at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesdays. There is no commitment to play every week; you can sign up as late as Monday afternoon. If you are interested in joining us, you are welcome to play as a guest up to three times before paying membership dues. For further information, stop by the Golf Shop or contact Deb Martin, president, at dmartin662@hotmail.com.

Well, it has been quiet here in the Arbor Club Ballroom, where we dance on Tuesday nights. But we have been busy preparing the dance schedule for the 2016-2017 season. As of now, there is only one special dance planned for a Tuesday night. On Tuesday, Nov. 29, we will be dancing as usual. But, there is the possibility that more may be added. I will keep you up to date. There will be four Saturday dances at the Recreation Center Ballroom. The times for all these dances are from 7:15 to 9:30 p.m. The dates and callers are as follows:

- Saturday, Oct. 22 with Jerry Biggerstaff from North Carolina.
 - Saturday, Jan. 28, 2017 with Nick Harley from Texas.
 - Saturday, March 4, 2017 with Jack Lewis from Boynton Beach, Fla.
 - Saturday, April 8, 2017 with Ron Libby from Summerfield, Fla.
- Lloyd and Ruth McKenrick will be our cuers for the round dance portions of these dances. We had some members return from the annual Peachtree Promenade, in Commerce, Ga. Also, coming up this month is the Tennessee State Convention in Gatlinburg, Tenn. Both of these dances feature many national callers and the dancing is so much fun. Hope that your summer is going well. See ya next month.

Line Dancing

Nancy Carmack

Summer is coming to a close soon, and it will be time to think about our fall and winter activities. Line dancing is a wonderful hobby with many benefits, which include low impact aerobic exercise, socializing, and because of the memory work, it's also good for the brain. We begin our new line dance season starting the Monday after Labor Day. Our professional line dance teacher, Marilyn McNeal, holds four different levels of classes in the Recreation Center Ballroom on Mondays starting with improver plus from 1:15 to 2:15 p.m., beginner two from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., beginner one from 3:45 to 4:45 p.m., and absolute beginners from 5 to 6 p.m. Nancy Carmack holds an intermediate class in the Recreation Center Ballroom from 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. Janice Meade holds her class for level two in the Arbor Club Ballroom on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 3 p.m. If you've never danced before, just sign up for the absolute beginners class to get started. If you've danced before and are not sure which class to choose, pick the level that you think you should be at, and you can change to a different level if the one you choose doesn't work for you. Sign up for classes at the Recreation Office. Weekends are always busy with dancing at Happy Hour on Friday nights at the Recreation Center Ballroom, and at The Town Square on Friday and Saturday nights. We also dance the second Thursday of every month at the Recreation Center Ballroom. Our July dance was a patriotic theme. As our friend, George, always said, just stay in line and step when the drum goes thump! For detailed information, contact Janice Meade at (352) 861-9345 for level two, Nancy Carmack (352) 533-8870 for intermediate, or Marilyn McNeal (352) 804-1546 for newcomer, beginner and improver plus.

Billiards Club

Phil Panzera

Well, the summer months are upon us, which brings up an annual concern for everyone with their own personal cue. It's perfectly okay to leave your cue case in the car for most of the year, but not during the summer in this veritable sauna we live in. Unless you have a metal cue, most American cues are made from Canadian maple. Even though your cue is a long way from being a "tree," it still has moisture in it. The inside of your car or trunk can reach 130 degrees, which can easily warp your shaft. If you've been leaving your cue in the car for years, you should check your shaft by rolling it on the pool table. If it is warped slightly you might be able to still use it, as long as you shoot with it curving up or down only (curving up is likely better for most strokes). You can put a little dot on your cue to help you orient it when you shoot. TIP OF THE MONTH: Here is the final of my "four cardinal sins," staying down through and after the stroke. Unfortunately, the vast majority of room players (including me on occasion) need constant absolution for this fundamentals no-no. Ever wonder why you're so much less accurate when you hit the cue ball harder? When you start moving your body on your last stroke you significantly move the cue off its aiming line. If you jerk up or shift forward or lift your cue that motion will almost always result in less accuracy. You might think you're not moving until after the cue ball is gone ... but you'd be wrong. The solution is both simple, and hard (like many things in pool, and life). The simple solution is to follow through straight and level, and then stop the cue for a second or two before moving. I advise people when practicing this concept to count "one, two" after the stroke before moving. Sounds simple, yet

I have had much difficulty trying to get students to do this. I remember once being quite unable to get a student to stop popping up on every shot, even when it was the only thing I was asking him not to do. So the next lesson I brought a piece of thick plywood and held it an inch over his head on every shot. After bopping himself quite a few times, he eventually got the idea. Along with a straight, smooth, level, follow through, that stops for a second or two after the cue ball is gone, no other part of the body should be moving except your arm. Not your head, not your body, nothing. Another benefit is that since you're "staying on" the ball longer, you'll get more action (follow, draw or English), allowing you to hit the ball slower to go where you need to for the next shot. The slower you hit, the better your position will be.

Stamp Club

Welcome once again to a wrap-up of happenings during the past month. Work continues on a variety of projects that will tax our resources during the upcoming months. Our schedule will be quite full during the next few months preparing for our annual stamp show, the Marion County Library main branch exhibit, as well as working with the Fort King Heritage Association and the Ocala Post Office on a special cover to recognize the reconstruction effort of the original Fort King. Needless to say this will take a concerted effort by our members to make it all come about.

I have often mentioned in the monthly column that stamp collectors can find many different things to collect. The picture this month shows an item that you probably will never see again. It shows a cover created by the Columbia Missouri Philatelic Society that recognizes a time/date (July 8, 2009 at 04:05:06) that will likely only occur once in a person's lifetime.

The first couple decades of this century provided us with a number of dates that would produce some unique combinations, and believe me, cover designers took advantage of these opportunities. Part of my collection includes an album with about 50 different covers using dates, times, zip codes, in one form or another to provide a set of consecutive numbers.

To add to the various upcoming events in which the club is involved, don't forget to stop by our table at the Club Fair, which will take place on Thursday Sept. 15, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Recreation Center Ballroom. I hope to have on display a number of items to perhaps pique your interest in our hobby. Stop by and say hello.

Our monthly meeting schedule can be found in the Club Schedule insert that accompanies this paper. If you need some information about the club or have any questions, you can e-mail me at rosinskijoe@gmail.com or visit our website at ocalagfmstampclub.com for addresses of other members. Our annual dues are a steal at only $6.

We have a large variety of research material available as well as a group of collectors who can assist you in getting started in all different aspects of our hobby. As a reminder, all members who collect used stamps, would appreciate it if you would use real stamps, especially commemoratives (the large ones), on all your snail mail correspondence. Thank you for reading this column and will talk to you again next month.

Model Railroaders

Jim Lynam

What time is it? Today that is a simple question with a very simple answer after viewing a clock or watch. Next question, what time is it in New York, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, and Chicago?

Prior to 1883, there were no time zones as we have today. Each city's time was established at noon when the sun was at its apex. Therefore times across the United States would vary by minutes. This did not pose any problems until the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Standard Railroad of the world, tried to establish time schedules between New York City and Chicago for freight and especially passenger service. But even more critical, most east/west trains used the same track and would have to know when to switch onto a passing siding and permit the opposing train to safely pass.

In 1869 the Western University Allegheny Observatory at Pittsburgh developed a four time zone system based upon the earth's meridian measurements. Now the problem was how to implement the standard time zones across the country. For years, the railroads had developed a very elaborate telegraph system for communication.

So on Sunday, Nov. 18, 1883 all United States and Canadian railroads would readjust their clocks based upon a telegraph signal from the Allegheny Observatory at exactly noon. As a result, all stations would be on the exact same minute within the hour, and would only vary by an exact hour across North America. American railroads continued to use this time system and it wasn't until 1918 that the 1918 Standard Time Act established these standard time zones in the United States.

This information now helps to understand the crucial iconic image of a suited railroad conductor pulling his company issued pocket watch, checking the precise time, and announcing "all aboard!"

Why not take the time to join us and spend some time in the layout room?

The Model Railroaders is always looking for new members, and you are welcome to join us. The layout is located in a room with entry from the Recreation Center's fitness center. The club members work and run trains on the layout on Tuesdays and Fridays, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Our next monthly meeting will be held at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 3 in Suite A of the Arbor Conference Center.

Tennis

Jorge Privat
(352) 387-7539

As the heat continues, please remember to stay hydrated.

I am trying to organize a doubles team to represent our community in a USTA fall league. It would be fun, allow us to get an Ocala presence, give us a chance to play other clubs and make new tennis friends. I will keep you posted.

Modern tennis has evolved into a high-speed game due in part to more aerodynamic and powerful equipment that allows players to achieve high racquet head acceleration and still keep the ball in play. Improvements in fitness, footwork and anticipation have translated into a more competitive environment, and the sport has never been more physically demanding.

Today there is a great emphasis on winning and not enough on handling challenging situations. Whether we like it or not, adversity is part of the game and life. Problems large and small present themselves on and off the courts.

When we respond positively and constructively to challenges, the qualities of strength, courage, character and perseverance emerge from deep within us. Although it is important to work on perfecting good technique and physical fitness in order to get more positive results, some of us might be ignoring the mental side of it.

The dynamics of a tennis match creates an environment where players are under constant pressure. A player's ability to control his or her reaction can have a direct impact in determining whether or not he/she succeeds during competition. I have always believed that sport is the greatest test to measure someone's character. How individuals face and tackle challenging situations is when true character is revealed.

Strengthening Character on the Courts

DEVELOP A STRONG BODY LANGUAGE: Body language is everything a player displays outwardly during and between points, games and sets. Like how oral and body language (how someone walks, talks, stands, carries themselves and responds to situations) is read and interpreted by others. Your player's body language shows how he/she faces challenges in a match. Everything a player does on the court sends a signal to their opponent. The signals show if your player is confident and strong, or tense, anxious and frustrated. To show a strong body language, consider the following:

1. Keep your shoulders and head high.
2. Pump yourself after a good point or high five your partner in doubles.
3. Move with energy between points.

4. Act focused on every point.
MANAGE ERRORS IN A CONSTRUCTIVE AND POSITIVE WAY: The reaction to an error can make a huge difference during a match. Focus on making technical and tactical adjustments between points and put previous errors out of your mind and focus only on the next point.

EMBRACE THE POWER OF PERSEVERANCE: It means not giving up easily. If you want something to happen, you will keep working on it. If you fail at first, keep trying until you accomplish your goal. Finish what you started despite the presence of challenges.

Consider the following:

1. You need positive attitude in difficult situations.
2. Having a goal in mind helps perseverance.
3. People fail because they give up too easily.
4. Resist negative influences, which make you fail.
5. Keep a list of things to do or improve regularly.

There will be days when you feel like giving up, days when it seems as though you are not making any progress. It's during those days that determination and perseverance is all that's left. Embrace the power of perseverance.

BECOME A PLAYER OF COURAGE: Courage is the mental and emotional ability to deal with difficult and challenging situations, the ability to confront fear, pain, danger, uncertainty, intimidation and other threats. You can help by:

1. Understanding it is normal to have fear. Players under perform because of fear of losing. Know that everyone feels the same way, whether or not they admit it.
2. Having the desire to overcome fear. Understand that the desire to overcome must be bigger than the fear to fail. We can have fears, but we must also have faith.
3. Reading inspiring stories of people with courage.
4. Begin with small attainable goals. Setting lofty goals can distract and frustrate you.
5. Tackle one small step at a time to build your courage and you will achieve more significant strides.
6. Develop Self Confidence. Once you begin achieving your goals, you will start to feel more confident about yourself and your game. Having confidence throughout a match is crucial to performing well. Positive self-talk and celebrating small achievements will slowly but surely build the self-belief that you need to succeed on the tennis court.

See you on the courts!

Fit Facts, Did You Know ...

Ten fitness facts to keep you thinking and moving!

1. Did you ever stop to think about how fast you walk? To get a close estimate, count the number of steps you take in a minute and divide by 30. For an example, if you take 120 steps you would be walking about four miles per hour. This number might be more important than you think; gait speed is a good indicator of the state of your health. It stands to reason that the quicker you can walk the fitter you are. This translates into better function, less disease and fewer falls!
2. Did you know the risk of heart disease, high blood pressure, cancer and diabetes can be reduced by taking the dog for a walk? Adults need at least 150 minutes of aerobic physical activity a week. That translates into a 22-minute daily dog walk!
3. Did you know a weight gain of 11 to 18 pounds increases your risk of heart disease by 25 percent? A weight gain of more than 25 pounds and your risk goes up 200 to 300 percent. Here's the good news: a weight loss of as little as 10 percent of your body weight usually means some big health improvements such as lower blood pressure and blood sugar levels.
4. Did you know that a study in the Journal of the American Medical Association reported gains in leg strength of 374 percent in men over 90 years of age who began strength training in as little as eight weeks! Other research has found that strength training can delay and reverse the typical age-related muscle loss in older adults. Maintaining your strength is one of the best ways to preserve independence and quality of life. Keep your muscles strong and they will keep you in action.
5. Did you know that exercise can improve brain function? Research has discovered that the fittest kids generally have the highest test scores. Older adults who are fit show less cognitive decline compared to their sedentary counterparts. Exercise increases circulation, which also increases the amount of oxygen and glucose getting to your brain cells!
6. Exercise can help you live longer. Studies on large populations have discovered the highest death rates in those who are the least fit. Those who are the most fit have the lowest death rates.
7. Did you know that sedentary adults lose 6 to 10 percent of their muscle mass per decade after age 30? This age-related muscle loss is a condition called sarcopenia. Although there is a natural muscle loss that occurs with the aging process, you can delay and decrease the amount of muscle you lose. You can even gain muscle back through regular strength training no matter what your age is. When it comes to muscle, use it to keep it!

8. Did you know that exercise can lower blood pressure? The number of capillaries surrounding each leg muscle fiber increases by 5 to 10 percent following endurance training. This not only makes exercise easier but also lowers blood pressure. Numerous studies support that exercise does indeed lower blood pressure in hypertensive subjects.
9. Did you know that the brain is the center of the human nervous system? It controls our thoughts, movements, memories and decisions. One of the best ways to keep your brain healthy is to "eat right and exercise!" The Alzheimer's Association says, "What's good for the body is good for the brain."
10. Did you know that when you were born your skeleton was made up of around 300 bones? However, as you grow some of your bones fuse together so as an adult you end up with 206 bones. Strength training is not only good for keeping your muscles strong; it also helps to keep your bones strong. Resistance training has been shown to improve bone density.

Summer fit facts to keep you healthy and cool:

FIT FACT #1: Hit the dirt! When temperatures are soaring, try walking on dirt, gravel or grass. Asphalt and concrete tend to radiate heat and reflect the sun's rays making you feel hotter.

FIT FACT #2: Protect your head. Mesh caps and visors are a great way to shield your face from the sun while still allowing excess heat to escape from your head.

FIT FACT #3: Stay hydrated and refuel with fruit. Most fruits are about 80 percent water so they are great for refueling and rehydrating.

Candler Hills Ladies 9-Hole Golf

Judith Parisi

Hopefully over this summer you are able to work in some golf if you are traveling and getting to experience some interesting courses. We find that courses in the Northeast are fraught with water hazards.

On the Candler Hills Golf Club Facebook page there was a link to an article in Golf Digest entitled "17 Golf Rules You Definitely Need to Know when Playing in a Tournament." One of these rules differentiated between water hazards and lateral hazards stating that a water hazard is marked in yellow, and a lateral hazard is marked in red.

They outline three options if you end in a water hazard if you are not going to attempt to play from that hazard. The choices are:

1. Go to the designated drop area, if there is one for the hazard;
2. Identify where the ball last crossed the water hazard, and drop as far back as you want from that spot and the pin;
3. Play by dropping the ball nearest to the point where your last stroke was played, re-teeing if you choose, if that was your first shot.

On a lateral hazard, you need to identify where the ball crossed into the hazard, and you have two club lengths in which to drop the ball. Another option is to go on the other side of the hazard as long as you are no closer to the hole and drop from there.

In each case, there is a one shot penalty. So, if you are teed up to hit over a water hazard and you ball ends in the water, you are one shot in, count the one stroke penalty, and you are hitting three. As we saw in the Masters, that can rattle the best of players, and the challenge is to relax so you can hopefully on what is technically your third shot clear the hazard.

Dancin' On the Top

Arlo Janssen

The Dancin' On the Top committee wants to give a special "thank you" to our many volunteers and members who have given their time and talents on our past dance programs. Without your help and hard work, our dance programs would not be top-notch events for our community.

Our next dance will be a great season opener for our dancers. This fall dance is on Saturday, Sept. 24 and will feature many beautiful fall colors and seasonal outfits. The scheduled dance will be a "Tailgate Party" theme set for the Recreation Center Ballroom with the band Automatic. Help us get the 2016 football season started by showing off your high school or college school colors, your team hats, school pennants, and game-day jersey for this event.

The Starburst Band will provide the music on Saturday, Nov. 5, with a "Salute to Our Veterans" as part of their program in the Recreation Center Ballroom. This will be a wonderful red, white, and blue patriotic event for our dancers. Remember that Veterans Day falls on Friday, Nov. 11, this year.

The New Year's Eve dance will be held on Saturday, Dec. 31, and will feature the band Automatic. This is always one of our best dances of

Sidekicks Western Dance

Hannah Cole

The Sidekicks have continued to have good attendance at Sunday practice, and on Tuesday night's instructional meetings. Carla and Tony have reviewed dances for the seasoned members while instructing some of the newer members in dances they are seeing for the first time.

If you can, go down and practice at The Town Square every Friday and Saturday night and watch the experienced dancers.

For those of you who have been away from our sessions, there is quite a list for you to study or review before the new season begins in the fall. Our list for the summer so far includes: Blue Rose, Cowboy Stroll, Country Rumba, Desperado Wrap, Diggy Liggy, Florida Stroll, Lorrie's ChaCha, Sway, Traveling Tootsie, and Twilight Schottische. Check out the website while you are away from us so that you will the year.

The Dancin' On the Top committee is developing the final dance calendar for the year 2017 and beyond. If you want to help out in any way for our dances, please contact Gene Melnick at the number listed below.

There are many opportunities to dance here at On Top of the World. In August, the weekly Friday night Happy Hour will be held in the Recreation Center Ballroom. Guest fees apply to anyone not having a resident I.D. There is also dancing outdoors at The Town Square on Friday and Saturday evenings this summer.

For membership or ticket information about a dance, please contact Gene Melnick at (352) 304-8293 or Peggy Sayat at (352) 509-7400.

be fresh on the dances we are doing this summer.

On Sunday, July 24, Carla and Tony joined by outgoing and incoming officers set up the calendar of events for the upcoming year. Our schedule for practices and parties will be put into a detailed format that will be submitted to management for approval. Although changes are unavoidable for regular practice, our main events will be strictly scheduled. This schedule will be provided to members as soon as they are on the books.

If you are not attending summer sessions, you are missing some fun as well as new dances. Stop in and join us on a Tuesday evening. Don't wait until we add new members in September.

"Dancing is not only fun, it is good for you." Dance every chance you get!

Clogging

Debra Rhinesmith

A beginner clogging class will be starting in the fall. If you have never clogged before, this will be a great time to come and check it out. Classes will meet in the Recreation Center Ballroom on Thursdays from 6 to 6:45 p.m. Experienced dancers will have class from 6:45 to 7:30 p.m.

If you would like to come check out a class, please contact me at (772) 370-0292 or hr6535@gmail.com.

Candler Hills Ladies 18-Hole Golf

Bev Overbo

Summer golf! Hot, humid with green fairways, and blossoming Crape Myrtles. Playing in threesomes, we carry on during the heat and (sometimes) rain; glad to be able to share our love of golf with one another!

During June, we invited the On Top of the World LGA-18 to join us. Not only did we enjoy good play and sociability, we were able to renew friendships between our two 18-hole leagues.

10 years and counting! This year the Candler Hills LGA is commemorating our first decade as a league! Look for more information on the founding and growth of this league in coming news columns. And for those of you who have considered joining our league, especially women golfers new to our community, please join us! What a wonderful way to enjoy the sport of golf, to make new friends, and have fun in the beautiful outdoors.

During the summer months, stay hydrated, seek shade, play quickly and use lots of sunscreen. And most of all - enjoy!

Ladies 9-Hole Golf

Judith Parisi

We have an amazing group of ladies who are braving the hazy, hot, and humid days of summer. Hope everyone comes prepared with lots of water, and a cooling towel. To maximize the cooling towel, consider using a Ziploc bag with icy water for refreshing the towel during play.

Golf Digest in "18 Golf Rules You Definitely Need to Know When Playing in a Tournament" addresses the issue of the flagstick. They give the example of a player making it to the green, with their ball coming to rest mere inches from the pin. With the exciting thought of a birdie, the player then casually brushes the ball in without removing the flagstick. What could have been a birdie then becomes a bogey due to the two stroke penalty of a ball hitting the flagstick as it was played from the green into the hole!

They also mention the other violation of hitting a pin that has been taken out and placed just past the hole. You might want to change its location or ask another player to relocate the pin if you feel there is any possible chance you could hit the flagstick when putting on the green.

With the hot weather, and perhaps a desire to get back to our carts for water, we can inadvertently make these mistakes, which result in two penalty strokes.

Information and details on the league, including results of play, minutes of meetings, an explanation of games, pictures and more are available on our website at otowladies9holeleague.shutterfly.com.

Charlie Fisher

Just a reminder, our racing days and times have changed due to the afternoon heat. We are now racing on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 9 a.m. Racing activity has decreased a little because some of our members went north, others went on cruises, and some are still on vacation. The track is in great shape and we are still racing. So, if you have some spare time come out on race days and watch the excitement. There is still activity at the track seven days a week in the mornings and evenings when members come out to practice. Come get hooked!

Horseshoe League

Jim Russell

Formal Horseshoe League play is mid-way through our summer break. While many of our regular players are on vacation, perhaps heading to cooler places to hang out for a while, we do still have a few of our hard core players meeting every Tuesday at 9 a.m. to toss a few games and keep their playing skills at peak performance. Or, in my case, to provide an opponent bragging rights for kicking my butt! Seriously, we just get together to have some fun and maybe get a little exercise.

So we offer an invitation to everyone to come by each Tuesday morning and join us. You don't need to bring any special equipment since the Horseshoe League provides everything you'll need to play. We have nine regulation pits, horseshoes and scoreboards available to accommodate up to 36 players at a time.

Almost everyone has pitched a horseshoe at some time in their life, be it in the back yard, at a picnic or as part of an organized league. If it's been a while since you played, our Tuesday morning get-together is the perfect opportunity to give it another try. We have both male and female players in all age ranges so you'll fit right in.

A regulation size horseshoe pit has the pins positioned 40 feet apart. Players under the age of 70 throw from a distance of 37 feet. Those 70 or older, as well as ladies and those with medical reasons, may throw from 27 feet. One game consists of throwing 40 shoes (2 shoes each frame for 20 frames). After you play your first three games, we'll establish your handicap (kind of like golf) so you will be competing on an even basis with all the other players. The more you play, the better you'll get and, subsequently, the lower your handicap will go. We have players with a 30 handicap and players with a zero handicap all competing with each other ... and the zero handicappers don't necessarily always win!

If you prefer to test out your pitching ability in private, you are welcome to come to the horseshoe facility, located next to the horseshoe pavilion and the new and improved softball field. In a storage container located next to pit #1, you will find shoes to practice with. You can use whichever pit you want and all we ask is that when you're finished, please use the broom and leveling tool provided to put the pit back into shape for the next players and return the shoes to the storage container.

Hope to see some new faces on Tuesdays. If you have any questions, please give me a call at (352) 861-6355.

Western Stars Bowling

Susan Knorr

Don't miss out on the fun that the Thursday afternoon Western Stars Bowling League has to offer.

On Thursday, April 14, 18 teams enjoyed our end-of-season banquet. We had a terrific dinner at Sweet Potatoes - A Breakfast & Lunch Cafe. Fun was had by all who attended.

Here is a list of the top three teams:

1: Pioneers; 2: Stampede; 3: Mustangs.

Other accomplishments:

Men

High Average: 184-Bob Vitale.
High Game Scratch: 245-Mike Cruz.
High Series Scratch: 623-Joe Rosinski.

High Handicap Game: 280-Jimmy Johnson.

High Handicap Series: 743-Peter Sanford.

Most Improved: 17 Pins-Wayne Gardner.

Women

High Average: 175-Debby Wilson.
High Game Scratch: 203-Rosie O'Neil.

High Series Scratch: 503-Judy Garrett.

High Handicap Game: 286-Mary Janes.

High Handicap Series: 716-Tana Carter.

Most Improved: 18 Pins-Tana Carter.

Jimmy Johnson (Denise) turned over the secretarial duties to Susan Knorr. Peter Sanford remains as our president, along with Fred Knorr as vice president.

The league starts again on Thursday, Aug. 25. Practice begins at 2:45 p.m. and we start bowling at 3 p.m. Once again, we are recruiting new members, so if you are looking to meet new friends while enjoying a couple hours each week of bowling, then don't miss out on this opportunity. The coming year promises to bring more excitement and fun while competing with both old and new friends.

League play takes place weekly on Thursdays beginning on Aug. 25. We will be holding a league meeting Thursday, Aug. 18, at 3 p.m. to go over all the details. The meeting will be held in the banquet room at AMF Galaxy West Lanes (1818 SW 17th Street, Ocala). If you are interested in joining or becoming a substitute, then contact Susan Knorr at (352) 304-8025. If you would like more information regarding the league or directions to AMF Galaxy West Lanes call (352) 732-0300 or visit amf.com.

Pickleball

Bill Daugherty

There will be a pickleball doubles tournament for residents on Saturday, Oct. 15, at 5 p.m. (rain date Oct. 16, at 5 p.m.). Registration is free for members of the Pickleball Club and $5 for non-members.

We will start with instruction in the USA Pickleball Association rules regarding serving and scoring so that we will be prepared for the upcoming North Central Florida Pickleball Doubles Tournament here on Saturday, Nov. 5.

Then you will be assigned to a four person team which will play three round robin games, each time with a different partner. The most successful person from each team will go on to the single elimination phase of the tournament with one assigned partner. After the final game there will be food to eat.

You can register by sending an e-mail with your name and your pickleball rank to otowpc@yahoo.com. To calculate your rank go to sites.google.com/site/okcpickleballclub/what-is-my-pickleball-rating-1.

The registration deadline is Saturday, Oct. 1. We need a minimum of 16 players. The tournament will provide a fun time for all participants and the winners will receive medals so they can impress their grandchildren. And remember to always play safely!

By Judy Gill

Prepare to be dazzled this October by the signature theme enhancements, which Encore Collaborative Theatre Club will bring back for your enjoyment. Their second production "Dancing Beneath a Paper Sky" will provide more than just excellent theatrical value; it will provide total entertainment.

Talented accompanist and music director, Jim Grapes, will perform celestial medleys. He will be presenting a new chorus the Voice of Encore. The number of songs about the moon and the stars may surprise the audiences. Many other facets are in the works for this production.

Also new is the inclusion of a cash bar featured at Saturday night's show with a complimentary snack. The ever-popular complimentary matinee dessert and beverage presentation will be back on Sunday. Still in keeping a celestial theme but taking it to a new level Encore will even provide a life size man-in-the-moon photo opportunity for all to enjoy.

Not that the quick, fast-paced play couldn't hold its own on any stage, without the frosting - who doesn't love frosting! James J. Jenkins, playwright and director is the genius behind this original comedy. Thanks to a great choice of cast and many of his talents, On Top of the World will again see what a small, but fierce, fledgling area theater group can do.

This is Jenkins' second Encore production. Round two will add even more of his talents with his creation of the playbill illustration cover characterizing his perception of his lead characters. Dempsey, his alter ego on stage, is an eligible carpenter in the storyline. Too many hats? No, that was last season and certainly not too many for James. It seems Encore has just begun to tap his talent, which we're convinced was worthy of the big stage, just as the audiences will be Saturday, Oct. 1 and Sunday, Oct. 2 at Circle Square Cultural Center.

Summary of "Dancing Beneath a Paper Sky" - when Eddi suffers a heart attack, her daughter, Tanya, convinces her mom's half-sister Margo to move in with Eddi. The problem is that the two women have not gotten along in years, and nothing has changed. Will Eddi and Margo really learn to get along or will they end up at each other's throats?

Don't miss "Dancing Beneath a Paper Sky" on Saturday, Oct. 1, at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 2, at 3 p.m. Tickets for reserved cabaret seating are available from committee and cast or stop by the Recreation Center every Monday, Wednesday or Friday, from 8 to 10 a.m.

Call Judy or Terry Gill at (352) 509-4033 about joining the Encore family. We meet monthly at Arbor Conference Center, Suites E and F on the third Tuesday.

Customer Appreciation Drawing

By Barb Lingis

We hope everyone is having a safe and great summer. The Artistic Crafts and Gifts Club would like to thank all of the folks who come to see us each Tuesday morning during our craft season. For that reason, our club is going to be having a customer appreciation drawing in which each crafter will give a gift from his or her table and a drawing will be held for each item donated on Tuesday, Dec. 13.

Every time you visit us on Tuesday morning beginning Tuesday, Sept. 6, you will receive a ticket when you come and an additional ticket when you make a purchase at the various crafters' tables.

On the award table each item donated by the crafters will have a ticket box. You may then place your ticket in the box for the item you would like to win.

This is our way of saying thank you! Remember, we will meet every Tuesday from 9 a.m. to noon beginning Sept. 6 in the Recreation Center Ballroom. Hope to see you there.

It's Show Time!

The heat is on! Circle Square Cultural Center has some hot performances this month!

The Marlins Friday, Aug. 5

The Marlins have been performing together for the past 25 years all over the United States and Canada. The talented brothers' repertoire covers all phases of music - country, rock, pop, classical, big band, bluegrass and jazz. Music may include songs from artists such as Glen Miller, the Beatles, Willie Nelson, the Beach Boys, Neil Diamond, and much more. Don't miss this performance. The group's most famous song is "I Believe in America." This original song is dedicated to those who serve and have served in our armed forces.

Kevin Costner & Modern West Saturday, Aug. 27

It is none other than the famous movie actor Kevin Costner and Modern West. The nine-piece band performing rock/country music, including Costner playing a guitar, has been together since 2007 producing two albums. The band went on a worldwide tour in 2007.

Costner, an American actor, film director, producer, musician and singer, has won two Academy Awards, three Golden Globe Awards and one Emmy starring in over 53 films during his career. There will be film clips of selected movies shown during the performance.

To purchase tickets, stop by the Circle Square Cultural Center ticket office at 8395 SW 80th Street or go online to csculturalcenter.com.

Let's watch the lights dim as the curtain rises. It's show time!

Theatre Group

Steve McDonald

The Theatre Group will resume regular operations beginning with the first general meeting of the season on Monday, Sept. 12. All residents are cordially invited to come to that meeting and share some light entertainment and snacks with us at 7 p.m. in the Arbor Conference Center, Suites E and F.

In the meantime, our storyboard committee remains busy over the summer planning some exciting new entertainment events for the coming season.

This month, we are pleased to spotlight Gary Rodoff, member since 2008, after moving to On Top of the World in 2004.

Gary was born in Baltimore, Md. His friends introduced him to the Theatre Group and his primary reason for joining was to become our set builder, and, to date, he has done an outstanding job in not only building our sets, but has also supervised all who have assisted in the efforts.

Gary states he has had no previous performing history and simply wants to continue building our sets as they relate to the specific shows we are performing. He has been active within the community as president of Community Patrol, member of Community Emergency Response Team, member of American Jewish Club, and On Top of the World volunteer. Within our group, he has served on our board (currently vice president), assistant stage manager, ticket sales, sound effects design, and helping member-wife Lennie put together our playbills.

Gary wishes to continue as our primary set builder and stage manager and his most pleasant memories are our "parties." Thanks, Gary, and we appreciate your efforts and expertise and look forward to your outstanding contributions in the future.

Please mark your calendar and plan to join us at our first general meeting of our new season, 7 p.m., Sept. 12, Arbor Conference Center, Suites E and F. You may contact Dick Phillips at (352) 861-0779 or dick.phillips@reagan.com if you have interest in our group or have any questions.

The New Pretenders

Bill Shampine

"Strike Up the Band!" "Sing, Sing, Sing." "Do You Want to Dance?" What do these songs have in common? They should bring to mind the various aspects of musical entertainment and if they resonate with you, The New Pretenders might just be a perfect fit!

Our troupe numbers about 30 and we are hoping to expand just a bit for the upcoming season. The music has been selected, the costume committee is beginning to work its magic, and the staging committee has a super start on its mission, too!

Our practices will begin in earnest in late September, allowing us plenty of time to prepare for our February play dates. Mark your calendar for the second weekend for the performances; while you're at it, mark down the date Monday, Dec. 12 which is the kick-off for ticket sales.

Ticket prices remain at the same level as last year: $8 for reserved seats and $6 for general admission. Where else can you get more than two hours of entertainment for that kind of money? And, any money we raise beyond our expenses is donated to local charities.

If you've ever dreamed of being on stage ... singing, dancing, having fun ... consider The New Pretenders! Give our director, Bill Shampine, a call after Saturday, Aug. 6 at (352) 873-0753. If you are more anxious and can't possibly wait that long, talk to any member of the troupe. You'll be glad you did!

Karaoke Friends

Kathy & Charlie Petrosky

Some of our singers like to imagine how things could have been. Tari was "Making Believe" while Karen told us about her "Hero." Carolyn told us what happens "In Dreams" while John brought us back to "Here in the Real World."

There are different ways to look at love. Rudy told us "I Will Always Love You" while Bob was asking "To Be Loved." Gary has a problem because he "Loved Too Much." Kathy remembered "The Last Time I Saw Him" while Charlie said he "Ain't Misbehaving." Shirley Haskel remembers "This Magic Moment" while Tom was telling us what happens "When I Fall in Love." Norma told us about a "Cold Cold Heart." Maybe that is why Ron said "I Drink Alone." Tony told us it would all work out "As Time Goes By."

After an evening of song we all feel good. Let us look at some reasons why that can be. Experts tell us that singing:

- Exercises the lungs.
- Improves sleep, circulation, mental alertness, balance and posture.
- Decreases muscle tension, snoring, anger, depression and anxiety.
- Tones facial muscles.
- Opens sinuses and respiratory tubes.
- Releases pain relieving endorphins.
- Boosts the immune system.

Come join us and feel better. You can get these benefits if you sing along with the singer. You do not have to get to the microphone. Often, we have a new song night. We try not to sing the same songs all the time.

We meet the first and third Mondays of the month from 6 to 9 p.m. in Arbor Conference Center, Suites E and F. This month we will meet Aug. 1 and 15. Hope we see you there.

ShutterBugs Photography

Gary Uhley

Have you ever seen the "mode dial" on a new digital camera and thought: "What in the world?" We - the ShutterBugs - can show you what this is all about.

Most every digital camera will have a "mode dial." Starting with the "green" mode, which is for "automatic" shooting. Just like it sounds, the camera will make all the decisions for you. It will check that the amount of light it needs is sufficient to take a photo. It will also set the exposure, and the aperture opening for you. Finally, as you press the trigger half way down, it will focus for you.

Each and every one of these little pictures of icons tells you something.

- M is for "manual" (you can change the settings).
- A is for "aperture priority" (you can change the shutter speed to what you want).
- S is for "shutter speed" (you change the aperture to what you want it to be).
- P is for "programmable" (change to a preset program).
- Guide (gives you instructions).
- A circle with the flash indicates a strobe (flash) is needed.

Progressing around the dial counter-clockwise, you have an icon for portraits, scenery, children, action, flowers, and finally night photography.

All of these can be used to your advantage. Digital photography is a thinking hobby now-a-days. Each of these symbols can be manipulated in different ways to your advantage. Take the pictures you've always wanted whether it is grandchildren or beautiful scenery.

Now you can even have your nice pictures printed on coffee mugs, large canvas or t-shirts. A nice 24-inch by 30-inch stretched canvas is only $35!

The world is your oyster, pick out your best shots and display them for the world to see. Don't be bashful.

It's a different world out there today; there's no reason why those really nice shots you've taken are hiding in that dresser drawer. Take them out, look at them and display them. I can almost hear the applause now!

Here is our monthly schedule:

- First Tuesday: Field trip.
- Second Tuesday: DVD camera instructions.
- Third Tuesday: Challenge or show and tell.
- Fourth Tuesday: Guest speaker or DVD.

Stop in and join us; it's great fun! Want to learn more about digital? Stop in at the ShutterBug's Tuesday meeting. We start at 3 p.m. in Suites B and C in the Arbor Conference Center. Or contact Gary Uhley at (352) 854-8536 or guhley@cfllr.com.

Happy Hookers

Marge Curran

Hard to believe it's August already; time really flies when you're having fun! I often ask myself how I ever found time to work 60 hours a week.

It's been a hot summer in Florida but the Happy Hookers continue to meet on a weekly basis in the cool accommodations of the Hobby Building. Every Monday you will find a very talented group of ladies busy crocheting, knitting, needlepoint, card crafting, embroidery, and just about any handcraft project you can imagine.

The years of crafting experience within the group are remarkable. You can usually find someone to help you through a difficult set of instructions, share a new pattern, get a new project started or with the challenge of resurrecting a skill you may have put aside for a while.

This terrific group continues to welcome newcomers to their weekly get-together. They meet year round, every Monday from 1:30 to 3 p.m. There are no dues or official meetings. Attendees bring whatever they happen to be working on and sometimes come empty handed looking for a new idea or just for a chat with friends in a comfortable setting. If every Monday doesn't work with your schedule, feel free to join us when your time permits.

Aug. 1 finds the Happy Hookers taking a break from the craft routine to enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. The group sets aside the first Monday of every other month for an outing at various Ocala eateries.

If you have yarn, pattern books, knitting needles, crochet hooks or other crafting tools that you no longer have a use for, donations are always greatly appreciated. Please call me for pick-up of these items at (630) 336-7105.

Please call Naomi Berman at (352) 873-4328 if you have any questions about the group or feel free to just drop in some Monday afternoon, we would love to meet you!

HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS

Florida's hurricane season officially begins June 1st and runs through November 30th. It is important to plan ahead so you are safe in an emergency. Prepare now for the risks associated with stormy weather and be prepared to act on that plan when alerted by emergency officials.

HERE ARE A FEW TIPS TO HELP YOU PREPARE IN THE EVENT OF A STORM:

- Prepare a disaster supplies kit (first aid kit, water, canned food supply, etc.)
- Bring in anything that can be picked up by the wind (bicycles, lawn ornaments, patio furniture, etc.)
- Unplug appliances
- Close windows, doors and hurricane shutters*.
- Fill your vehicles gas tank and any gas cans you may have
- Obey evacuation orders
- Pet owners should have plans to care for their animals

Visit www.nhc.noaa.gov/prepare/ready for additional information

*Please refer to the Association Rules as to when hurricane shutters may be closed.

Art Group

Anne Merrick

The Art Group is from many parts of the country with full-time Floridians and part-time snowbirds. We are a diverse group: painting and drawing in many different mediums.

I would like to talk about acrylic paint. For those who are new to painting there could be no better medium. You can do virtually anything with acrylics, which is why they are favored by artists who like to experiment. They are water based and odor free.

Acrylic paint is relatively new. In the 1920s, an American firm, Rohm, started to experiment with synthetic resin which initially was used in false teeth and heels of shoes. These early acrylic polymers were eventually developed as a base for house paint. In the 1930s, Siqueiros' workshop in New York was experimenting with new paint formulas, and scientists and artists worked together to create the resin that would hold more pigment without hardening.

It was not until World War II that manufacturers of artist's materials began seriously to put their minds to making a paint based on the new resins. The American firm Permanent Pigments was the first to come up with a product called Liquitex, a resin emulsion with the same consistency as poster color. This brand is still available today.

By the 1950s, after decades of experimentation, acrylic paints were on sale in the United States and warmly welcomed by many young artists eager to experiment with this new medium. By the 1960s, the new colors were available and widely used in Europe.

The equipment for painting with acrylic is not complicated. You could get by with a few tubes of paint, a brush and a jar of water. However, as you become more proficient you will want to extend your choice of materials.

The amount of colors available now is staggering. There is hardly any need to mix but there is always that one color you want to be perfect. There are mediums to make your paint thicker or thinner, shinier or duller and brushes of every shape, size and type of hair, and palette knives of various shapes and flexibility to give texture to the paint.

Then you come to the surface on which to paint. Acrylic paints can be used on almost any surface with varying effects. Canvas is the most common but Masonite board, both rough and smooth sides, plywood, primed paper, plastics, metal and glass can be used. Your imagination is the only limiting factor. Acrylic paint can also be combined with any other medium like water-color or pencil for different effects.

On that note, join us on Thursdays and Saturdays at 9 a.m. in the Art Studio on the hill near the wood shop. You may just look at what we do or bring your stuff and join us.

Sewing Bees

Linda Lohr

The "dog days" may be here, but we think this beach-themed quilt will be a big hit with a young child.

We have many new members and the hive is always hummin'! We've got a good start on our Christmas stockings and are working on adorable puppets for the next Rags to Riches.

Our mission is to provide comfort for the abused, abandoned and neglected children of Marion County. Your donations all year long help us to do just that. Stop by our hive on any Thursday in the Art Studio, 12:30 to 3 p.m. We would be happy to show you our creations made with love for the children. You may find our club is just what you have been looking for to round out your week.

We are in need of cotton material suitable for young boys. If you no longer sew but have cotton fabric of this kind, please consider donating the material to the Sewing Bees. We will put it to good use!

Please contact Louise Green at (352) 629-1195, or Rita Miller at (352) 237-6660 for more information. As always, the children and we thank you for all your support.

Rubber Stamp Greeting Cards

Linda Lohr

Sisters Dorothy Pratt and Rita Rehpohl were our presenters for July. They offered some great cards utilizing the Z fold, the collar fold and the accordion fold. What great techniques. Each card can be made suitable for so many different occasions. Great job, ladies!

Anyone can be a presenter - and the cards do not have to be fancy or complicated. Our group is based on friendship, socializing and helping each other!

Our group is open to all crafters, beginners or those more experienced. One or two people do a presentation each month. The group usually meets the first and third Thursdays of the month, unless the demonstrator requests other arrangements. There are basic supplies that are needed, such as a trimmer, glue, scissors, and card stock. Everyone in the group shares their supplies and everyone brings new ideas to the table. You are only limited by your imagination!

If you feel this might be a class you would enjoy, please call at Kathy at (352) 237-6439. We look forward to introducing new people to our fun craft. Until then, keep on stampin'!

View from the Library

B.J. Leckbee

This column is for those who are new to our community and also for those who've been here awhile but haven't yet checked out our lending library.

Here's how our library works: You find a book, take it out, read it, then bring it back and place it in the drop box when you're finished. No paperwork. No deadlines. No late fees. Such a deal!

Thanks to ongoing donations from our neighbors here at On Top of the World, the library has grown to include more than 14,000 books, some of which are in large print. The drop boxes inside the door are often overflowing with donated books and magazines that quickly find their way onto the shelves.

Do you like mysteries? We've got them. Are you a romance fan? We've got those, too. Do you read strictly non-fiction? You've lots of categories to choose from, including biographies, sports, taking care of our bodies, world and Florida history, westerns, and a few of the classics.

Or do you prefer magazines? We have both monthly and weekly magazines; sorted into men's, women's and sports. Space is limited, so monthly magazines are kept for four months only, and weekly magazines for two months.

Certain popular authors, among them Agatha Christie, Tom Clancy, Mary Higgins Clark, Stephen King and Louis L'Amour, have a special area devoted to their books.

Finding the book you want, or finding out if we have it, is as easy as looking up either the title or the author's name in our card catalog. Okay, it's not a catalog, it's a drawer, but you know what I mean. The card will direct you to the location of the book.

Fiction is filed and shelved by author name; non-fiction by number. Look for the three-digit number (non-fiction) or first three letters of the author's name (fiction) on the card and match it to the labels on the shelves.

The residents who keep this operation under control volunteer their time. They categorize the incoming books, stamp and label them, create a card so you'll know where to find them, and shelve them. Then they shelve them again when they reappear in that box just inside the door.

If you happen to see one of our volunteers working while you're there, please take a moment to let that special person know you appreciate his or her time and effort.

The library is located adjacent to the ballroom in the Recreation Center. It's open whenever the Recreation Center is open. We hope you'll take advantage of this jewel. Come and browse. Take home a few books for those rainy days and quiet nights. Enjoy!
